The Wake Up Call

Special Edition

What Every American Needs To Know

Dear Fellow American,

If you find the following: new to you, strange, crazy, or absurd, you unfortunately have some major catching up to do and you are in need of a stern wake up call. Hopefully this will be the wake up call.

Deep down inside, most of us, Americans, know that something isn't right. With our government, the media, and the public's mindset in general, we know "something isn't right".

It's important to understand our government was set up "by the people, for the people" but has NOT actually been "by the people, for the people" for quite some time. You can admit many of our "leaders" are elected and then do whatever they want for their own good and the good of the corporations/lobbyists they accept money from. You know this much is true. So, we have established that government hasn't been operating the way it was intended for quite some time. This is an important time to check your brain and moral compass because you KNOW this point is true. Stay with this thought. Things are not what they are supposed to be in the way they operate, what makes you think that this is the only thing. We have all heard of Bills being passed in "midnight sessions" away from the public, the prying eyes of reporters and concerned "watch groups". Why? It should make us think about it, IF we actually stopped to think. But ask yourself this question; why do we allow it? Why don't we stand up and say, wait a minute, we are your constituents, you represent us, you can't hold issues in secrecy, it's not right to keep secrets from "we the people" unless we don't matter and it's not in our best interest? That would explain a lot, wouldn't it?

GOOOOOD MOOORRRRING, AMERICAAAAAAA!!!!!!!

You go to sleep every night living in the New World Order and your wake up call to this fact may arrive in the form of Martial Law. That's right. And what is Martial Law exactly? It used to mean, temporary rule of a civilian population by military authorities during a time of emergency. But, now thanks in part to the first section of our wake up call; it's no longer temporary, instead permanent in ways that will redefine the term. It was a Bill that sounded patriotic, felt patriotic in its introduction to the public, but is, in fact, not the least bit patriotic. It's the Patriot Act, of course.

You may be thinking, if it's not patriotic why would it be a law and why would they call it the Patriot Act? It's a frightening thought, but the government commonly says a law is one thing when it's really something else. It makes us feel safe and good, meanwhile it's never defined in plain English. This allows them to use the law selectively and that's scary. First, understand this. The Patriot Act I & II are not the least bit patriotic, instead you'll learn they are a caldron of abuse and threat to civil liberties, thus evil. It was said, "The second Patriot Act is a mirror image of powers that Julius Caesar and Adolf Hitler gave themselves. Whereas the First Patriot Act only gutted the First, Third, Fourth and Fifth Amendments, and seriously damaged the Seventh and the Tenth, the Second Patriot Act reorganizes the entire Federal government as well as many areas of state government under the dictatorial control of the Justice Department, the Office of Homeland Security and the FEMA NORTHCOM military command. The Domestic Security Enhancement Act 2003, also known as the Second Patriot Act is by its very structure the definition of dictatorship."

These documents were written in anticipation of events, circumstances and crisis, and the first Patriot Act passed without a single member of Congress being ALLOWED to read it. What? Yes, that's right, not one member was allowed to read it and they readily admit this.

The first Patriot Act was prewritten, sitting on a shelf and waiting for a terrorist attack to be dusted off and passed into law. These Acts are in direct violation of The Constitution of the United States of America. They destroy, in this so-called war on terror, the very fabric of our entire system. 90% of the Bill has nothing to do with terrorism, but is instead a Federal power grab. Fundamental elements of freedom, including free speech, freedom of the press, the right to assemble and more, are now in jeopardy or have been effectively abolished. Also, the government has recently, in complete violation of the U.S. Constitution, given itself the right to warrant-less searches of your person, home, and property. It's hard to believe, but law enforcement is now instructed to suspect anyone with a copy of, or quoting, the Constitution of the United States of being a terrorist! Billions of dollars have been put into domestic programs to be used against the citizens of America.

You may be defending the government in your mind right now, thinking these laws are to protect us from the evil terrorists, but consider this; these laws are domestic, not foreign. That means these laws are for you, the average citizen, the government's only true fear, "we the people". Don't pull the wool over your own eyes. This is the wake up call, not the snooze button. Wake up!

One of the most alarming things to consider about the Patriot Act(s) are the hundreds of references to "terrorism", "terrorist acts" and "terrorist", but THEY define who a terrorists is: a "unlawful combatant" or "enemy combatant". Section 802 defines domestic terrorism so broadly that it could apply to any individual exercising his or her freedom of speech, expression, and assembly as acts of civil disobedience. But, wait there's more. The second Patriot Act Section 501 expands on Section 802 of the first Patriot Act's definition of "enemy combatant" as any American citizen who "may" have violated any provision of Section 802; which describes any crime as a crime of domestic terrorism. Stop and think about that for a moment; any crime as a crime of domestic terrorism. This is very dangerous as the definition of civil disobedience can be twisted nine ways to Sunday and is already happening all across America as police forces are guided by Homeland Security to enforce these supposed laws they claim are meant for "terrorists", on average citizens. An interesting disclosure of the tens of thousands of "investigations" conducted by Homeland Security revealed only

0.014% had anything to do with terrorists or terrorism. The other 99.986% were unrelated to terrorism or terrorist. There are literally thousands of examples and they are in and of themselves proof of the desensitizing of Americans through conditioned denial as we see and hear of these atrocities without thinking twice about the violation of civil liberties being committed by our uniformed officers while they unwittingly violate the oaths they swore to protect and uphold the Constitution of the United States of America. Have you noticed? How do they pull it off?

Simple. We have been bombarded by the words "War on Terror" to the point where the average American really doesn't want to hear an alternative to this. Many Americans think it's necessary to lock someone up for simply voicing their opinion. After all we are in a "War on Terror"; we can't have people going around questioning the government when the government is only looking out for our best interests. Really? It's for our best interest? Remember the freedoms the Patriot Act just took away? Remember, "by the people, for the people" that isn't reality anymore? Is it really our best interest? Do you still think so? Remember, the Patriot Act was written well in advance and written in anticipation of circumstances. But, they needed an excuse to pass the Patriot Act? Keep reading, as this will be explained.

FAKE MONEY & TAXES

Let's back way up and understand some important establishing facts that have lead to some of our current circumstances. In 1913, several men succeeded at a plan they had devised in secret, writing a Bill that would be covertly passed by a very limited number of Congressmen during a Congressional Christmas vacation. This was a very powerful Bill written by bankers. It was introduced to a practically, empty Congress by a Senator in on the deal with these bankers. The Bill was the Federal Reserve Act. Its intention was simple; give the power to print money to their private, international banks. The problem was they just simply printed money out of thin air. Meanwhile it was and still is, paid back in real money with interest. Doesn't make sense does it? Well, hold on because it gets worse, much worse. Basically, the three men who designed this essential take over of the national currency, by doing so, essentially took over and owned the country too. By controlling the money, interest rates, federal spending, and federal debt, they controlled the federal government.

These men were none other than (top) J.P. Morgan, Paul Warburg, Sen. Nelson Aldrich, (bottom) Benjamin Strong, Frank Vanderlip, Henry P. Davidson & Charles D. Norton and they pulled off the greatest con of their time. Keep in mind, these men owned banks, printed fake money for an entire nation and were paid back in real money with interest.

President Woodrow Wilson, who signed the Federal Reserve Act into law on December 23rd, 1913, six years later wrote, in regret of his action, "I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is now controlled by its system of credit. We are no longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men." He went to his grave, miserable.

Note: Later, in 1950, the government, falling behind on the interest payments, created a way to draw more money out of the taxpayers to pay this interest and it's still used today. It's known as the Federal Income Tax, a completely illegal, unconstitutional, anti-sixteenth amendment, income tax, non-law (in 1950 the tax was 2%). To this day there is no law that says you have to pay a Federal Income Tax, as it is "voluntary". It is assumed through "conditioning", but not legal. 100% of the money from the Federal Income Tax is used for the Federal Reserve (private bank) interest (debt). There is a misunderstanding that your taxes pay for things you enjoy. Some do, but not the Federal Income Tax. Roads and highways: gas tax. Military: corporate tax. Schools: property tax. Etc., etc., etc.

These bankers were very smart and had enough money to take unbelievable risks and chances, and one idea was pure genius. They started a rumor in New York City that a well-known bank was going bankrupt. The story was planted in large newspapers, paid off to do the bidding of these wealthy magnates. Fearful people everywhere pulled their money out of the banks, all banks. Here is where the genius comes in. After so many people pulling their money and closing their accounts, the banks were desperate for money, so, they called in their loans. But, nearly everyone with loans couldn't possibly pay them off, so their property was seized and taken from them. Hence, the Great Depression was installed in America. These major bankers were then able to buy up most all of the property for pennies on the dollar. When the market recovered they sold the property and assets at profits that would be considered incredible by any standard. But, what does the Federal Reserve Act have to do with anything current? Everything. Just keep reading.

THE ULTIMATE P.I.N. (PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION NUMBER)

The Great Depression caused a scare that made people far more open to giving up privacy and liberty. Anything but a continuing depression, they said. So the government, with the help of their friendly bankers, devised a plan to keep people financially secure in their older years, Social Security or, social insurance. It was part of the New Deal, the title President Franklin D. Roosevelt gave to the series of programs he initiated between 1933 and 1938 with the goal of providing relief, recovery, and reform (3 R's) to the people and economy of the United States during the Great Depression. In 1935, people accepted it with open arms, but there were a few catches, of course. One, the average life expectancy back then was much lower than the cashing in age of Social Security money. Two, and most importantly, it replaced a person's individual name identity with a number. Keep in mind this was a major concern for most all of Congress and citizens at the time of debate regarding this law.

In the Bill, passed into law, it was stated the social security number was NEVER to be used as form of identification. In fact, until recently it was still printed right on the social security card just below the number, "Not to be used as a form of identification".

But, as we all know, it was used as a form of identification. It IS your identification. You cannot get a job or do anything without giving it up. It's the key to accessing your life, records, banking, credit score, etc. and it's completely illegal. It's your life P.I.N. People feel powerless when they are treated as a number or cattle. When you call a corporation like your Phone Company, cable provider, bank, or credit card Company with a complaint or question about your bill for example, you give them numbers, phone numbers, last four digits of your SSN, etc. From that point on you speak like a number. To the person on the other end of the line, you are a number. In every way you ARE a number, not a person. We are constantly paying for this treatment with their one policy for all mentality. Not the individual needs of the individuals. We became a number and now stand in line for everything. The Social Security Number was the beginning of a powerful conditioning that leaves us powerless to the government, corporations and banks, and what benefits them, not us.

At this point, you must stop for a moment and accept the facts. This was and still is a blatant misuse and abuse of laws and power. We are so desensitized that we don't even think twice about it. We continually allow the government to pass laws that include restrictions on what they can and cannot do, but then later after some conditioning of the public, some excuses and falsely created necessity, they stomp all over our privacy (in this example). This is a clear wake up call for the realization that it's the norm in Washington for this kind of abuse. It makes no difference if they promise a law will ONLY do one thing or another because in Washington, give an inch MEANS take a mile. We'll revisit this as the big picture is drawn more clearly.

GIVE UP SOME FREEDOM FOR LIBERTY, BUT THEY ARE SYNONYMOUS

The understanding that freedom is liberty and liberty is freedom will make this next Act quite interesting. Interesting in a way that scares the life out of anyone who understands it's meaning and how it fits into the big picture. We already know the government will sell itself to private bankers, lie to citizens about their identity and turn us into cattle. Now we have this Military Commissions Act of 2006. It's not too bad really if you don't need the Bill of Rights. This Act finishes dismantling and destroying, a staggering, 9 of the 10 Bill of Rights. You will never see those Rights if the government deems you an "enemy combatant". Remember the Patriot Act?

It's important to understand, our government, all throughout our history, has successfully used the same trick on us. It's this trickery that we keep falling for time and time again. Each time there is a threat, real or fabricated, the government becomes a little more LIKE the threat in order to "protect" us. When there is a threat on our freedom, they take some of our freedom away to protect the rest of our liberty. This has happened so much until most Americans are so accustomed to the idea they think they are actually free now. You're not. When there is a threat on our liberty, they take some. A threat on our way of life, they change some of our way of life. Threat on our financial security, give that security to private bankers to rape and pillage us into trillions of debt until we give up a little more freedom for wars, as wars are always profitable and invigorate the economy. Many Presidents from John Adams, Woodrow Wilson, Franklin Roosevelt, all the way to the one we have now have done this. It's never worked out well for us, just them. Who are they protecting, really. Benjamin Franklin said, essentially, anyone who gives up their liberty for safety deserves neither.

This Military Act is just that, it's militarization on us. How? "These Military Commissions will provide a fair trial in which the accused are presumed innocent, have access to an attorney and can hear all the evidence against them", President George Bush speaking at the signing statement of the Military Commissions Act of 2006. There's just one problem. He's lying. In fact, it is a bold face, outright lie. Remember the trick they play on us, saying it's one thing to make us feel good about it while not defining it and leaving us to find out it's not what we thought? Let's examine why it's a lie. (Besides the fact that he's claiming the law will give the "accused" Rights they already have. Why would an accused person need laws they already have? It's so clever how these things are presented and it goes right over most people's head because he claims it's for the terrorists, but it works in conjunction with the Patriot Act which is "domestic" terrorists, "enemy combatants".)

Goodbye America, Hello Nazi Germany

On October 17, 2006 President Bush signed into law the Military Commissions Act of 2006 (MCA). By passing the MCA, congress and the administration has given its stamp of approval to secret detentions, enforced disappearances, indefinite incarceration, and torture in clear violation of the U.S. Constitution and international law. This law also applies to U.S. citizens if the government designates you an "enemy combatant" (and the definition is extremely broad and arbitrary). YOU could be a victim of this despotic law.

This Act:

- Strips citizens and non-citizens of their right to appeal their detentions to the US courts if they are held as "enemy combatant" (this violates the right of Habeas Corpus guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution)
- Prohibits the US courts from using "foreign or international law" to inform their decisions in relation to the War Crimes Act
- Expands the power of the President to give him the dictatorial authority to interpret the meaning and application of the Geneva Conventions.
- Prohibits any person from invoking the Geneva Conventions or their protocols as a source of rights in any action in any US court
- Permits, in violation of international law, the use of evidence extracted under cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, i.e., torture.
- Permits the use of classified evidence against a defendant, without the defendant necessarily being able effectively to challenge the "sources, methods or activities" by which the government acquired the evidence
- Gives the military commissions the power to hand down death sentences, in contravention of international standards which only permit capital punishment after trials affording "all possible safeguards to ensure a fair trial"

This legislation must be stopped! Call your congressman and ask for a full repeal of this draconian law. To learn more and to find out other ways you can help, go to: Center for Constitutional Rights (www.ccr-ny.org); Bill of Rights Defense Committee (www.bordc.org); Amnesty International (www.amnesty.org)... before it's too late.

First, the Military Commissions Act of 2006 permanently eliminates Habeas Corpus (which applies to U.S. citizens), also known as the Great Writ, which is the name of a legal action through which a person can seek relief from an unlawful detention of himself or another person. It is a safeguard of individual freedom against arbitrary state action and one of the very cornerstones of our freedom found in the Constitution where in the Constitution it states "habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it'. Keep in mind; members of Congress who opposed this Military Commissions Act openly said, "The conditions for suspending habeas corpus had not been met". This isn't something that can be suspended in anticipation of rebellion or invasion, but in fact, it doesn't suspend it at all. It permanently eliminates Habeas Corpus. 100% unconstitutional! No President or Congress is allowed to remove anything from the Constitution. They have sworn oaths to "protect the Constitution from ALL enemies, both foreign and domestic". To pass a law that removes any part of the Constitution is a violation of the Constitution and is otherwise known as treason. There is no problem that can be solved by taking our Rights away. This Bill or Act was cleverly disguised as a law for foreign "enemy combatants" but it's real purpose is to be used against us, "we the people". Remember, the Patriot Act? Remember, "Social Security" and its violation of our privacy and identification? Give and inch, take a mile?

You'll have to do some homework yourself, so web search the "bill of rights" and read them... And to make it a little easier on you, the only one you have left is the third. The rest are all gone. Believe it or not, that's exactly what the Military Commissions Act of 2006 has given us, or shall we say, taken away. Depends on whose side you're on.

THOSE WHO CANNOT LEARN FROM HISTORY ARE DOOMED TO REPEAT IT

"You are now witnessing the beginning of a great epoch in history...a sign from God to declare all out war on terrorism and it's ideological sponsors, a people who traced their origins to the Middle East and found motivation for their evil deeds in their religion", George Bush? No. These words belong to a leader who instituted laws just like the Patriot Act and Military Commissions Act, Adolph Hitler. His laws were extremely effective at meeting his goals. You could ask the ones who felt how effective it was, but most of them are dead...7,000,000 of them. But let's back up just a bit to how Hitler gained power. To gain control and institute these similar laws, Hitler and his men planned and executed a fake, or false flag, terrorist attack.

They burned the Reichstag (Germany's Congress) to the ground, blaming it on the "communists" and essentially putting Hitler in power (this is well documented). Within the first few months after that "terrorist attack", at the suggestion of a political advisor, Hitler brought a formerly obscure word into common usage. He wanted to stir up "racial pride" among his countrymen, so, instead of referring to the nation by its name, Germany; he began to refer to it as "The Homeland". Remember, the citizens of Germany didn't know that Hitler was responsible for the "communist" attack and within a year of that false flag operation he had moved to "protect" the security of the homeland, by consolidating the actions of dozens of previously independent police, border, and investigative agencies under one national agency.

Sound familiar? No accountability, checks or balances...Like our Homeland Security Agency! There is only one explanation this scenario: total control.

Hitler had his propaganda minister orchestrate a campaign to ensure the people he was a deeply religious man and that his motives were rooted in Christianity. He proclaimed the need for a revival of the Christian faith across his nation. By the time of his successful and brief action to seize Austria, in which almost no German blood was shed, Hitler was the most beloved and popular leader in the history of Germany. Hailed around the world, he was later Time Magazine's "Man of the Year" in an article titled:

"A Dictator's Hour"

Ironically, by the third anniversary of "Bin Laden" & "Al Queda's" alleged successful demolition of the WTC Towers in New York City, the terrorist act that catapulted Bush to alter and reshape the American Constitution; his successful and brief bombing to destroy Afghanistan in which almost no American blood was shed, Bush was the most beloved and popular "War President" in the history of this nation. With the Patriot Act, Homeland Security, War in Iraq, illegal detentions on a US Military base in Cuba, War on American Free Speech and War on Civil Liberties, he became Time magazine's "Man of the Year".

At the time Hitler took power, Germany wasn't communist and had a great relationship with the U.S. The evil "enemy combatants" in Hitler's time were the "communists" in his public speeches to win favor in the public eye, but in reality select citizens of Germany were the "enemy combatants" in Hitler's policies and Laws or "Acts". It is much the same in America now.

POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED

One of the ways our government proposes to keep us safe is to give us all a new National Identification card (national driver's license). It's called REAL ID. It's to protect us, we cannot avoid "another 9/11 without the REAL ID" said Michael

Chertoff, Secretary of Homeland Security. You are probably hearing it called the REAL ID for the first time, right now. You can be sure it is NOT for "your protection" and WILL be used to take away your liberty. What is it, exactly? It is a tamper proof identification card with a magnetic strip on the back storing information digitally; your social security number, retinal scan, right hand palm and fingerprints and even stores your DNA once the technology will so allow it. And one more thing, it also contains a very pretty, shiny, RFID chip right on the front. The RFID chip is a radio frequency identification chip that tracks your every move on planet earth to within three meters. You will be asked to present this ID card as it will be swiped for just about everything you do, including all transactions, credit or cash, all travel, etc. Don't worry, it will work with all existing debit and credit machines that you already use at every convenience store, grocery store, department store, and airport security check point, etc. Of course, most of the time for security purposes you'll have to put your face up to a retinal scanner while placing your right hand on a palm and fingerprint scanner (If you're a Christian you may want to consult the Book of Revelations as your eyes are only thing in your forehead and your fingerprint scan is on your right hand, just hinting you may want to look it up). Retinal and handprint scanners were tested in convenience stores throughout America as far back as at least 1998 as part of a secure check-cashing program. Since the passing of the Patriot Act, all new bank accounts require a credit check and separate documents to be filled out for Homeland Security. It is a complete cohesion in anticipation of the REAL ID. You may be thinking, there's no way this REAL ID will ever happen. Guess what? It's already been signed into law. It was another one of those "Acts" that passed without anyone in the mainstream (corporate) media reporting it. The REAL ID Act was passed as a "rider" on the back of a emergency military spending and tsunami relief bill, signed into law back in early 2005.

Along with a bunch of junk to make it look good this law didn't even mess around with confusing talk, rather it just comes right out and says what it means. All states must voluntarily pass this law or else. Or else what? That's the interesting part about that word "voluntarily". Portions of the Real ID Act pertaining to States were scheduled to take effect on May 11, 2008, three years after the law passed, but the deadline has been extended to December 31, 2009. The consequences of not passing the Act are the most severe; neither the State nor it's citizens are recognized as part of the United States of America and would therefore lose all federal monies, benefits, travel to and from the state, use of federal highways, Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security, etc., etc., etc. The same goes for any individual who refuses whether in a State that happens to "voluntarily" pass the law or not. And if you, an individual, decides that you aren't going to take this ID card, guess what that would make you: an "enemy combatant", or "unlawful combatant", according to the Patriot Act II and the Military Commissions Act. You would be "rebellious". That will no longer be tolerated. It would be a new act of treason seen as acting out, by pursuing your personal happiness, liberty from tyranny and freedom from oppression.

Warning: These cards are expensive, contain sensitive information, unique numbers and could really screw the system up if you lost it, had to replace it, be reassigned a new card with new numbers, reprogram your life into the system, erase the old card's information from the system as to not allow someone to assume your identity or just reek havoc on the system and your life. So, don't lose it, because you don't want the alternative, or shall we say the REAL ID inevitable... You see, some years back, certain sectors of the military were guinea pigs for this ID card and all of its capabilities, and it is very expensive. Some of America's finest would lose their card. No worries though, lose it once and they replaced it. Lose a second time and guess what? The soldier was implanted with a microchip RFID version of the card. That's right, believe it or not the technology has been around for decades and has only been improving in its capabilities. It still has all the capabilities of the card with one catch; you can't possibly lose an implant. (You may be wondering how do they scan an implant with a credit card machine? Have you seen the gas pumps that you just wave a capsule on your key chain by? Or how about the new credit cards you only have to wave it by at the register? This is the purpose of that technology.) This is where we are headed. You just have to know how to look without conditioned denial.

SHOW ME THE MONEY

Is it starting to make sense? It will when the dollar, due to interest on fake money, continues to decline in buying power (down 57% at the time of this writing July '07) until all the countries who currently invest in our dollar and give us loans based on the power of our dollar, cash out on their holdings of our currency, refuse to give us loans and bail on us completely. It may even remind you of the Great Depression when banks called in their loans because the value of the dollar had dropped so low they themselves had to use the property they had given consumers loans to buy as collateral for their own debt to the big banks. When our money has so little value that it buys nothing for a whole lot, we'll be begging for something, anything to get us out of this jam we're in so we can go back to watching TV and forget about all the problems with this country. Just leave us alone in our houses we purchased on borrowed money with our nice cars we purchased on borrowed money parked in the garage next to the lawn mower purchased on a credit card while we eat our dinner purchased with our debit card in front of the giant screen propaganda box we don't make payments on for 6 more months where we hear the so-called "truth", no matter what channel it's on, from the ultra wealthy, utterly corporate, everything to gain, totally controlled media conglomerate repeating the same message; leaving us just one decision we can still make for ourselves as we decide which news "personality" we like to hear our doom, gloom and daily serving of lies and propaganda from. And, when we have made our decision and are peacefully sitting there munching on our MSG (excitotoxin) riddled food, sipping on our Aspartame (excitotoxin) sweetened soft drink or Fluoridated/Chlorine water or tea of choice we will one day hear the news that we have been saved by a new currency known as the AMERO.

Then the New World Order, which this government takes its orders from, will have us begging for this new form of currency. It's just missing one thing. Support, close support, maybe the same thing that helped the EURO get off the ground and rolling in Europe. Yes, that's what we'll need. We'll need friends to share our currency with. We need...

(Search: Excitotoxicity, MSG, Other Names for MSG Aspartame, Sodium Fluoride, Fluoridation, Chlorine)

A NEW COUNTRY

Well, friend, this must be your lucky day because we happen to have a new country for you right here where you live. It's called the North American Union. 17(Read: Council On Foreign Relations - Building A North American Community) It's a little known merger between the US, Canada and Mexico and was actually signed into existence by the "leaders" of these three countries back in 2005. Planned under the cover of the Security and Prosperity Partnership of North America, right down to the smallest detail, with the three government's total cooperation and assistance, of course. They've built one of the largest seaports in the world in Mexico, bringing products in, mostly from, China, begun construction of the largest super-highway system in the world, the Trans-Texas Corridor \(or NAFTA Superhighway\) in the US, which they will soon test with 100 hundred Mexican trucking companies flooding the U.S with trucks and truck drivers coequally testing the REAL ID's, to go along with the completed construction of the largest truck depot in the world located in Kansas (Kansas City Smart Port, Official Website), and of course, one of the largest airports, still to be expanded, in Denver as part of their "Port to Plane" project.

The maps for dividing North America into six territories are all laid out, highways, new Capital (Denver, where a second, or shadow, government is already in operation in Colorado Springs), infrastructure, martial law to keep order, of course, and all this has been going on right under your nose. Most citizens will likely beg for this merger, as the government will tell us that the North American Union and the AMERO will certainly save us from our useless dollar. Of course, it's just another trick, sleight of hand, because it's the opposite in fact. Just look to the Fortune 500 hundred companies as most of them in anticipation of this merger have already set up their new corporate offices in London, but mostly Dubai to avoid the collapse that will be coming. (Web search any of this and find out all you want to know. "Trans-Texas Corridor" is a good one. "North American Union" and "AMERO" are others.) It's all right there in front of us. And, it can be, because the media is owned by the same Fortune 500 corporations who stand to profit by the new country's laws or shall we say lack there of. Legalized monopolies for starters. Do you know who owns Fox, CNN, NBC, CBS, ABC, New York Times, etc.? Different corporations that have nothing to do with news own these media networks. Let's not forget the word "network". These giants plant stories on the little stations in each market, filling them full of garbage and sound bites that keep everything consistent from the local level to national. They monitor each one, baiting them with promotion possibilities of anchors and reporters moving to larger markets or even up to the Network level if they stay in line and report what they are told. Corporations run the government, banks run the government, elitists run the government and this is only the beginning...

The master plan is called, 'The Project for the New American Century', it was laid out years in advance. It could only happen, as they the planners said themselves, with a new Pearl Harbor. Enacting the laws (Patriot Act I & II, Military Commissions Act, REAL ID Act) that would be needed to set in motion the new territory (North American Union) helped by a crashing dollar setting up more

Pearl Harbors (false flag/fake attacks blaming them on Iran or Syria, etc., so they can start a most likely nuclear invasion, creating a panic in the U.S. that will lead to Martial Law, etc.) until they have what they need to complete a One World Government, one connected currency through the World Bank, with one ID system for every human on the planet and we, the taxed to death people, will fund it as we are their faithful non-thinking, non-questioning, do as we are told, powerless feeling, subjects, or slaves as we really are, living in conditioned denial.

This plan has been tweaked and messed with for many, many years. This latest version, The Project for the New American Century went public in 1997 with a cover story of their goals on their publicly accessible website. It's all smoke and mirrors, but the signers of this plan are below. You may recognize a few names. Remember, 1997, three years before George W. Bush was "elected" and this plan wasn't conceived in 1997 it went public in 1997. Now put that in your mind as you read the names of the designers (in alphabetical order) and remember all of the events, Acts, etc. that have happened since 2001; try to tell yourself it's just a coincidence that some of these men of such great power are on this list.

[Look up names you are unfamiliar with on Wikipedia to see the seats or positions of power these men are or were in.]

The point of this is to show you it's all connected. It's been surrounding us for years. The point is to get you ready for what's coming because the more of us that know and understand without living in the conditioned denial we've grown accustomed to, the more we have a fighting chance.

Note: The Rockefeller tie still binds as David Rockefeller has spent years creating avenues for the NAU, nurturing Latin leaders to go along with his plan through organizations such as The Council on the Americas (Founder and Honorary Chairman), The Americas Society (Chairman), The Forum of the Americas (Founder), The Institute for International Economics (Financial backer and Board Member), The Trilateral Commission (Founder and Honorary Chairman). He was also Chairman of The Council on Foreign Relations when Cheney served as a Director. In fact, Cheney joked not long ago during speech to the CFR saying; "I never mentioned that (he was a member and Director of CFR) back when I was campaigning for reelection (U.S. Senate) back home in Wyoming." He received big laughs from the CFR audience after this remark because they know full well how sinister their organization is.

HINDSIGHT'S 20/20

In 1998, UNOCAL, the ninth largest oil company in the world, with the services of General Electric, Halliburton, and its CEO Dick Cheney, and Enron, planned to construct a 935 mile, multi-billion dollar, oil pipeline through Pakistan and Afghanistan, the Central Asia Gas Pipeline Consortium (CentGas). They went to Afghanistan for the rights to build, but the deal fell through due to "political unrest". Now here is where it gets interesting.

After the invasion of Afghanistan, for it's "involvement" in 9/11, the U.S. "appointed" a President of Afghanistan, Hamid Karzai. Who IS Hamid Karzai? Try this one on for size; he was a former member of the board of directors of UNOCAL. And, guess what one of the first accomplishments of the newly appointed administration was? You guessed it; Afghanistan has a pipeline (of which they'll likely never see a drop of oil or money from) running through their backyard thanks in part to the U.S. military knowing how to drop precision smart bombs in a straight line through the mountains making it much easier to construct. (Search: hamid karzai oil board member)

Then we invaded Iraq for their participation in 9/11. Yes, at first we said they were harboring "Al Queda", but that wasn't going to work. Wait, Saddam has Weapons of Mass Destruction. Yes, that will work, but they lied about all of the intelligence gathered on the subject. No matter, we'll get in their and kill the witnesses, temporarily free the people, then enslave the people, start a civil war, build permanent military bases and stay there long enough for defense contractors to get filthy rich while being protected by our under paid, under equipped soldiers. And, by filthy rich... Blackwater, a private defense contracting company, making hundreds of millions in Iraq, headquarters in Virginia, provides private soldiers by the tens of thousands (Watch: Iraq For Sale, a high-quality film by Robert Greenwald, 75 minutes or watch it at the bottom of this page), Halliburton (Dick Cheney, Former CEO) cannot be measured in millions of dollars because it's in the billions, but the real have your cake and eat it too award goes to daddy. Yes, President Bush's daddy, former President George H. W. Bush is a board member of the Carlyle Group, a defense contractor making more money than any other defense contractor in the world and they should because their partners are the Bin Laden family, the Saudi Royal family and others. (There is a plethora of information about the Bush family on the Internet, but be careful it could make your head explode, as it will open your eyes to things you wish you didn't know about them. Bush...past and present.)

But that's all in the past. If you want to see our present and future at the same time, you need look no further. Several decades ago, we entered into an agreement with the oil countries in the Middle East and OPEC was formed. No surprise here, OPEC is run by the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. The Deal: we buy oil from these countries at prices set by us with the value of currency set by the US Dollar. At the time of this agreement these countries, like Saudi Arabia for example, were dirt poor. In exchange for buying their oil and giving them US Dollars for it, they had to do something for us. They had to take a percentage of that money and buy part of our National Debt. It sounded like a pretty good plan. There was a small problem. Not ALL of the oil rich countries in the region went along with it. There were two nations that told us to take a hike. Can you guess which two countries? If you guessed Iraq and Iran, you would be correct.

Iraq and Iran: our present and future conflicts, or, "War on Terror". And you thought we were fighting the terrorists for what they did to us. Think again. Or, just change the way you think. Not everything is what it seems. No magician or illusionist has ever sawed anyone in half. No matter how many different ways they do the trick, it's still just a trick. It's not a coincidence that the countries we have gone into and will go into, Afghanistan, Iraq and Iran happened to be blamed for 9/11. It's the other way around, as we blamed them for 9/11 so we COULD have an excuse to invade them. It's all pretty convenient don't you think.

If it's really about terrorism and WMD's we could have easily gone after plenty of terrorists in plenty of other places, like North Korea and their WMD's. Or, Africa, where literally millions have lost their lives in civil wars, genocides, and government sponsored terrorism that is still going on today. (Search: Africa Eugenics) We in our righteousness have done almost nothing to actually stop the killing in Africa as only recently people have awakened to Darfur. Watch Chavez in Venezuela, if he continues to step out of line with the oil issues, we'll "find terrorists" there too. (Search: Chaves Oil Terrorist) Keep in mind; Iran is not a nuclear threat for building the same nuclear power plants that we have scattered all throughout the U.S for electricity. Construction is about to begin in London for the exact type of reactor for electricity that Iran is building. Iran is a threat for selling its countries oil to China and European companies in EURO's instead of US Dollars for a fraction of what we pay. Our conflict with Iran has everything to do with the world's true currency, oil.

PERCEPTION IS NOT REALITY; A NEW WAY OF THINKING

Taking advantage of us by sleight of hand trickery has long been our government's method of choice for accomplishing its secret goals. From Social Security abuses to illegal Federal Income Taxes (Watch: America: Freedom to Fascism by Academy Award Winner, Aaron Russo, 111 minutes or watch it at the bottom of this page) and tens of thousands of other expansions on laws and then outright violations; their newest way of convincing us they need all these new laws is saying the laws are for the terrorists. But, why do we need to pass laws to go after the "bad guys". It's a very simple idea really. Pass laws that keep us safe from the bad guys but make us prove we're not the bad guys. Give up our privacy, freedom and our rights to keep from being invaded, but the government is the only entity doing any invading. Remember, the Patriot Act is not a law for foreign threats; it's a law for domestic threats. We are the suspects. Our President said, "I need Congress to pass this law if I am going to be able to protect the American people". He was speaking of the Military Commissions Act of 2006. These laws, Patriot Act I & II, Military Commissions Act and a slew of other laws and Executive Orders, all work in concert with each other as part one big jig-LAW-puzzle. Hitler had the same big law, the "Enabling Act" that crowned him dictator, but he passed it all at once. We in America need our death camps created a little slower and right in front of our eyes in order to accept them. (See: Patriot Act vs. Enabling Act) We are so conditioned and desensitized to the government controlling us; we have forgotten we're supposed to be the ones in control. The founding fathers had a very simple plan for never allowing the federal government to get too big and powerful; they made it illegal for the Federal Government to tax an individual's income, therefore limiting it's growth, scope and size. Oops! We allowed that to happen, just 2% we were told. That's all, we promise, no more. Right.

That tax grew and grew until it was another tax and another tax, and each time they promised it would be the end. But, it's never the end. It's a continuing take, take, take practice.

Look over here at the "evil doers" while Bush takes our Bill of Rights. (MUST SEE: Keith Olbermann Video, 9 minutes or at the bottom of this page) This is premeditated. We are behind and must catch up to these crimes against our Constitution before we have nothing to leave our children. The goal of the government is clear. Make us suspects until we give up our rights and freedoms and become enslaved to their money hungry puppet masters, to prove we are innocent. It was said, "...after 9/11, 280 million American citizens became suspects".

In recent polls, no matter who is doing the poll, the majority of Americans, Republican and Democrat, men and women, "believe" the government had something to do with 9/11. There is endless scientific and eyewitness proof that 9/11 was a hoax and there is no proof that the government's version is really what happened, but many people just DON'T WANT to believe it (who could blame them). Do some research; there are hundreds of websites dedicated to the subject, many by scholars, physicists, engineers, former government employees, and great Americans with common sense just like yourself. Don't just sit there watching TV. Shut off the propaganda box, do a web search for 911 Truth, Scholars for 911 Truth and read, read, read. If you have trouble with the idea of thinking your government had something to do with 9/11 you have much to learn about your country's history.

9/11 is extremely important because it was THE "terror attack" that led to this Patriot Act I & II being dusted off and passed, without being read. Unequivocally, none of these plans, laws, Patriot Acts, Military Commissions Act of 2006, Project for New American Century, AMERO currency, North American Union, Billions and Billions spent on seaports, super-highways, etc., the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq, the building of 14 permanent U.S. military bases and an American Embassy larger than the Vatican in Iraq, not to mention the surrender of 75% of Iraq's oil revenue for 30 years could have happened without: 9/11.

Do you still think it was a bunch of guys with box cutters pulling off military grade pilot maneuvers, directed by a guy in a cave? Meanwhile the Bush Family has been, and still is, in business, for decades, with the Bin Laden Family (Bush-Bin Laden Oil), secret joint bank accounts (stemming from the George W. Bush/James R. Bath/bin Laden business partnerships) in the Harris Bank, a unit of Bank of Montreal and the units of Barclays Bank, United Kingdom, contain joint accounts of Osama bin Laden/James R. Bath/George W. Bush. The White House said if they could find Osama bin Laden's bank accounts they'd seize them. Right. Do you still think the official story is true when the FBI has never formally indicted or charged Osama Bin Laden with a crime related to 9/11 because there is "insufficient evidence to connect him with any crime"? Or, how about NINE of the alleged hijackers found alive and well interviewed while going about their normal lives where they have been all along? Interviewed on the BBC and others. Jet Fuel DOES NOT burn hot enough to melt steel, so do you still think that steel buildings fall down because of fire? There are only three steel buildings in history to ever "officially" fall down due to fire...they are WTC 1, 2, & 7, and 7 wasn't even hit by a plane, but it did house the CIA, Secret Service, FBI, Homeland Security, New York City emergency command bunker and nearly every document having anything to do with the Enron scandal and it's connections to one Dick Cheney and The White House. All three buildings fell at free fall speed, so there goes the pancake theory, and were vaporized into millions of tons of dust. How about the audio recordings of more than 150 firefighters on their radios in the buildings, recorded that day, saying, "There are explosions going off everywhere" in these buildings, before they all died, of course. Recordings finally released by a court more than 4 years after the fact.

What about the numerous documented reports about strange security changes and men installing new internet lines in the buildings, yet no internet lines were installed, for two to three weeks leading up to Sept.

11th. And what about the removal of all bomb-sniffing dogs for the first time, three weeks before 9/11, as they were used daily up until this mysterious time. And, during the same three weeks all security cameras were shut down 24/7 in all stairwells, etc.

And, who was the man in charge, the head of the security company overseeing the World Trade Center and all of these mysterious happenings, who incidentally resigned on September 10th, 2001? Marvin Bush, the Presidents younger brother.

What will it take to realize something just isn't right?

How about this? NORAD has average less than 6 minutes to intercept a plane off course since it's inception to protect the skies of North America (hundreds of intercepts per year), yet on 9/11 they missed 4 planes in one morning. Look into it and you'll find out NORAD and Department of Defense documents show that for the first time in history, NORAD's intercept control was taken away in the early morning hours of September 11th, 2001. Who was it given to? One Dick Cheney. 9/11 testimony from National Transportation Secretary, Norman Mineta, who was in the bunker on 9/11 with Cheney, said, an aid came in every few minutes to tell the Vice-President, "the plane is 40 miles out...the plane is 30 miles out...the plane is...10...do the orders still stand sir?" And, the head of the NTC goes on to testify (covered by C-SPAN), "The Vice-President said, 'of course the order still stands, have you heard anything to the contrary?'" BOOM!!!

There are literally hundreds and hundreds of facts that back up the real truth about 9/11, but there isn't much that can be said for the real "conspiracy theory" that belongs to the government and their 9/11 Commission Report. This IS the new Pearl Harbor; 9/11 was a pretext for total control. It's openly admitted in Washington, D.C. and depending on whom you talk to they'll still tell you it's for the good of the country, to protect us from the bad guys. But, apparently and according to these new laws, we, the American citizens, are the bad guys. This is not the first time this has happened in history, we just didn't pay attention in class, we assumed that we were safe; we thought nothing would ever happen to us, we thought wrong.

FEAR: THE REAL WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION

Do you remember when the weapons of mass destruction were used on you? Maybe you were too caught up in the moment to realize it. These WMD's were in the form of those buildings being attacked, planes crashing, people dying, buildings collapsing, constant talk of terrorists, terrorism, terror, Bin Laden, Al Queda, Taliban, War on Terror, "Saddam's Weapons of Mass Destruction" repeated a million times, on and on and on. This is the real weapon of mass destruction, because it's controlled FEAR. When they lie about WMD's it's to provoke fear, when they plan attacks and allow innocent lives to be snuffed out it's to provoke FEAR. If you hear the same thing over and over again, eventually you'll believe it. Fear made Americans jump to give up their freedoms because the fear was crammed down our throats 24 hours a day in the news and on the color coded Homeland Security "Terror Barometer". "Today it's yellow, oh no, it's gone up to orange; run, hide, buy plastic and duct tape to put over your windows to protect from radiological fallout and biological weapons...the terrorists are coming." Do you remember? The head of Homeland Security actually told people to buy plastic and duct tape? WHAT? Are you kidding? It's controlled FEAR! It's a joke. It's obvious when you look back at it. They hyped it until they passed the laws they wanted and since then you've never heard another word about duct tape and plastic. But, guess what? They'll do it again, blame it on Iran or Syria, etc. and Americans will fall for it. Again.

If you are having trouble believing this, if conditioned denial is creeping in again, then here is a suggestion; look into the real stories behind Pearl Harbor, Cuban Missile Crisis, Attack of the USS Liberty, Gulf of Tonkin (Vietnam War), Oklahoma City Bombing, Waco, Ruby Ridge and learn about these and many more government sponsored terror and false flag operations. Learn about the CIA's involvement in numerous coups and terror plots. Learn about the FBI's involvement in the first WTC bombing in 1993, as reported in major newspapers. Learn the real history not the fabricated history leading to your "America can do no wrong, conditioned denial". It is conditioned denial. It started for most of us in the form of the history they didn't teach us. Are you brave enough to hear the truth? It can only hurt you if you don't learn it. What we should be in fear of is: ourselves. We are our own worst enemies for allowing this to happen, but we didn't know what was happening; now you do.

AWAKE YET?

What will you do? Sit back, do nothing, ignore it, hope this goes away, wish for it not to happen, or will you take action, stand up for your country, educate yourself, get answers, flood Congress with calls? There is no time left to spend in "conditioned denial". There is only time left to feverishly seek the truth. Make yourself aware of what IS happening. Learn how to see through the deception that is the media and Presidential "Executive Orders" demolishing our freedoms. This is real, it is happening and as much as we don't want it to happen, it will, if we do nothing. Share this information with everyone you know, but whatever you do, find your way to God, as He is the Creator, the All Knowing and true

Ruler of men. We must have faith, but God made us with a free will. We must choose to act. So let us Act against these "Acts" and take our country back.

The bottom line is this. Someone else is in control of your life. From the interest rate on your car, house, credit cards, etc., to the price you pay for gas, electricity, etc., and food, and laws passed to govern you, even what you do with your own money (fake as it is). You are not in control of anything. Does that sound like freedom to you? Are you really free? Do you have choices? This country was founded on being able to stand up and say, "Wait, something is wrong with this. I don't agree." Could you do that now? No, it's called dissemination and there are many laws to prosecute you for doing it. After all, your new title is "enemy combatant" if you speak out against anything. But, collectively through being informed we can make a difference.

Web search until your heart's content, this is only the tip of the iceberg on each of these subjects, you can find many sites, documents, videos, internet radio stations, etc. dedicated to finding the truth, only the truth. It will set us free if we don't wait until it's too late.

There is nothing wrong with America, just the people in control of America. America is the greatest land in the world, we used to be a beacon of hope to the entire world, let's get it back. It's time for real patriots to stand up for this country so many patriots gave their lives for.

Do you hear the wake up call?

Blessings,

Deeply Concerned American

* Note: This was written to inform those most in need of it. Much, much more could be written. In the hopes of giving you enough to peak your interest and motivate you to research for yourself, this document was actually limited to the subjects within. The following are quick facts about other important topics of great consequence.

** For those of you unfamiliar with the 1st Amendment to the Constitution, it says: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

If case you haven't noticed these rights are being illegally killed off one by one. Try using a video camera in New York City, if they so choose, you will be arrested unless you have a permit and a $1,000,000 insurance policy. Why? Because the Mayor didn't like truth seekers asking him questions. The Patriot Act and Military Commission Act took care of the rest of the 1st Amendment. Wake up. This is illegal, un-Constitutional!

*** FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) is not actually what it seems as their primary job is not to aid in emergencies. Remember Katrina and New Orleans? They tested their plan to separate families, father from mother from children, and it worked. Promised aid, money, etc. and have, to date, delivered nothing but displaced families. But, don't worry they will rebuild with the 62.5 billion dollars in contracts FEMA and the military have given Halliburton, Bechtel and Fluor through subsidiary fronts. But, none of the rebuilding is for the victims, they aren't allowed back or haven't you heard of the recent court case. Ask yourself what laws of physics would have to be violated for one levee wall to break in two places on the same side in perfect symmetrical distances and flood only the poor side of town. Then find the many accounts of witnesses who, from bridges, watched black uniformed men all around the levee wall just before it blew up or "gave way". Then research the morgue contract given to a Texas company, friend of Bush, for Katrina in New Orleans. Research the Blackwater private soldier's 73 Million Dollars, $243,000 per day, contract for Katrina in New Orleans. Blackwater, by the way, is all over the United States right now. We may not want to believe it, but what we want to believe won't change the truth.

FEMA has constructed and is responsible for more than 800, ready for operation, concentration camps in the U.S. They are prepared to hold more than 20,000,000 Americans. This is not denied and can be found buried in mainstream news. Of course, back when they wanted funding for these camps they claimed it was "in case of a flood of illegal aliens". The same illegal aliens they are trying to get amnesty for, now that they have their funding. Smoke and mirrors. Smell a rat yet? Nothing is ever what it seems. (Summary of FEMA & Presidential Executive Orders for FEMA & CONCENTRATION CAMP LOCATIONS by State)

**** And the real wool over your eyes, if you're ready for it, is Global Warming.

The Global Warming movement, specifically Al Gore, is a sham. There is no proof that "we" are causing anything. There is one culprit for earth warming and you may have heard of it. It's called, the SUN. As part of a natural cycle in our galaxy, the Proton Belt [web search] is approaching and just like our solar cycle (summer and winter) all planets in our solar system are being affected equally in their changing ratio to the sun. EVERY planet in our solar system is warming up naturally. There has been a twenty-year campaign of duping celebrities and musicians into duping the public. A great many of the scientists Al Gore's studies have used actually disagree with him, which is why he changed his mind about having them all sign one document or wall to show their support. He, instead, used their names, ruining some of their careers and ignoring the critics. One of London's leading environmental scientists went public, was threatened with jail and has been placed under house arrest for several years now. Each year as the American study on the state of the environment is about to be published it goes to one particular office for approval and is edited with a black marker and sections are re-written by hand. It's then published as if it came from the scientific community. Can you guess which "office" this is? I'll give you a hint: it's white. Yes, The White House. They don't want the true science to come out because they have an agenda. This is a scam to put a One World Global tax on everyone and thus, uniting everyone toward commonality and a one world society or government, ultimately religion.

There is no such thing as Co2 Global Warming. Our earth is shifting, it's natural, not permanent and most surprisingly, we aren't even to the hot time yet. As part of the con, the government uses NASA (who gets its money from...? Right!) to show the supposed facts about temperature. But, it has been recently discovered that they fudged their equations to make it look like 1998 was the hottest year on record, it wasn't. 1934 was and still is the hottest year on record. In fact, 5 of the 10 hottest years on record are all before World War II.

So, ask them to explain this: How is it all of the planets in our solar system are getting closer to the sun, rising in temperature, supposed facts are based only on admittedly false science from a paid government agency, their own scientists won't sign on, the White House continually edits the scientific reports before they are published, yet somehow my car is making it hotter on other planets? Use your common sense; add it up and you'll see you've been conditioned to deny your common sense by peer pressure, movies, music, politics, false science, etc. But, you can change that with the power you have to change your mind. In case you are entering conditioned denial again, ask yourself this one question again: How do Co2 emissions from your car make it hotter on other planets? END OF ARGUMENT!!! No "yes, but". That's it. END OF ARGUMENT!!!

FINAL REPORT, 2003

The challenge for the USGCRP is to provide the best possible scientific basis for documenting, understanding, and projecting changes in the Earth's life-support systems, and the role for CCRI is to reduce the significant remaining uncertainties associated with human-induced climate change and facilitate full use of scientific information in policy and decisionmaking on possible response strategies for adaptation and mitigation.

***** A Hint: One Vatican controlled group not mentioned, until now, has members throughout all the other groups mentioned, has been around for centuries and is overlooked by all media and people alike. The Freemasons or Masons. Do a web search and learn about the 33rd Degree Freemason's real doctrine. This is one scary club. Local level Masons have no clue as to what's really going on at the top and the vast number of local level members and lodges are exactly what makes it seem so harmless. After all, they do so much good for society. Learn how Freemasons at the top go way, way back. You have been desensitized to it by the glamorizing movies such as "National Treasure" and will again be by its sequel to be released at the end of 2007. But, learn, in fact, that Freemasonry at the top is a very sinister cult, very real, very determined and very, very powerful. So powerful you may not believe what they're really about until you discover it for yourself, but it will explain a lot about why the evil going on in this world is perpetrated by these high level members. It will also explain much in the way of the beliefs of these people. Top members of the Freemasons are called 33rd Degree Freemasons. Interestingly, it is rumored nearly all but two Presidents of the United States were or are 33rd Degree Freemasons. Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy would be the two outsiders. (They are also 2 of the only 3 Presidents to dissolve, or attempt to dissolve in Kennedy's case, the international banking system in the U.S. The third was Andrew Jackson, who shared Lincoln and Kennedy's fate as he was assassinated, by poisoning. By the way, John Wilkes Booth was a Freemason.) Do a web search for "33rd Degree Freemasons", etc. the lists of members will chill you to the bone once you understand what their beliefs are and the width and purpose of their deception over the American people and the world. But, their goals are larger as they look to, or already, control politics, employment, education, economics, military, government, police, banks, communications, entertainment and aim at creating a cashless society, controlled by the government... (Eric Jon Phelps is the expert on this subject, so read everything you can and get his book, Vatican Assassins III, at his Official Website)

Dubai: Remember, the mention of major corporations setting up their new headquarters in London and Dubai? Dubai is worth your research. Check out the Palm Islands in Dubai. It's a virtual paradise. This is an ultra exclusive group of man-made islands for the ultra elite and wealthy. For example, Dick Cheney has purchased there as well as the heads of many of the major corporations in the U.S. and the world, etc. Dubai is also the site of the world's tallest building (tallest by about 40 stories), still under final construction. Why do you suppose these individuals, these world elites would be purchasing homes, buying land and setting up their world headquarters in the same place at the same time?

The Thing About Credit: When you use your credit card you are printing money. Yes, each time you make a purchase the merchant gets paid, but the money is digital and is written straight out of the top Federal Reserve Banks. [banks that print money] So, like our government, we have paper money printed with each swipe to pay the merchant and then we are expected to pay the money back each month with REAL money we earn, plus interest for most people. This is completely unconstitutional, of course, and there is a name for this - Fraud.

Between mid 2009 and the end of 2009, the United States of America will be completely bankrupt. When this happens, our entire credit based society will not be able to pay their credit related bills like mortgages, car payments, credit card payments, etc. and since our dollar will have no value, the big Fed banks will just take all the titles and property they want just like they did during the Great Depression. Makes you think maybe they had this planned all along. They did.

Brainwashed: 99% of Americans, when asked what kind of government we have will answer "democracy". That's wrong. We most certainly do not have a democracy. It's a Republic. Though most think there's no difference or it's no big deal what we call it, it is in fact a form of brainwashing to change your way of thinking and more importantly your acceptance of government control.

NOWHERE in the Declaration of Independence, Constitution, Bill of Rights or Pledge of Allegiance is the word "democracy" ever used. And there is a good reason for that as the founding fathers and citizens of America hated democracies. In democracy 51% rule the 49% and tell them what they can and cannot do (that's not freedom). In a republic 99% cannot tell 1% (this is freedom). The United States is a Republic. You pledged "allegiance to the flag and to the Republic for which it stands" everyday, as a kid in school, so don't be fooled into thinking we live in a democracy, it's brainwashing.
