

HIDDEN PART OF WORLD HISTORY "RECOVERED"

You may admire or may dislike the methods of infiltration by the Society of Jesus (JESUITS), for indeed, this military Society ("Company of Jesus") can create political crisis and their capability of sparking revolutions and civil wars including large-scale world wars can drive any nation into dire trouble.

FR. EMMANUEL ABBE SIEYES, S.J.
STATESMAN AND POLITICAL WRITER

EMMANUEL JOSEPH ABBE SIEYES (1748 ~1836), was indeed a Jesuit Father. Born at Fréjus on May 3, 1748, Emmanuel Joseph Sieyès got his primary education from the Jesuits in his hometown and continued into advanced study in theology (Jesuit "Moral" Theology which justifies regicide).

This man was one of the principal orchestrators of the French Revolution with secret ties to the Freemasonic Jacobins controlled by the Bavarian Illuminati created by the Jesuits themselves.

This man was the one who helped to put Napoleon Bonaparte into political power which later resulted in the bloody wars throughout Europe known as the NAPLEONIC WARS. Napoleon Bonaparte was also educated and trained by the Jesuits themselves.

How many innocent French people as well as people throughout Europe died during the bloody French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars. The pope's anti-Jesuit, Vatican Empire and Roman Catholic Europe (1759-1774) were devastated (1789-1815) by the Order using Jesuit Sieyès to advise Bonaparte. Here is the "IHS" seal of Society Of Jesus (JESUIT ORDER).

Britannica Concise Encyclopedia : Emmanuel-Joseph Sieyès

Born May 3, 1748, Fréjus, France — died June 20, 1836, Paris) French political theorist. A Catholic priest, he rose to become chancellor of the diocese of Chartres in 1788. In sympathy with the reform movement before the French Revolution [which movement arose after King Louis XV expelled the Jesuits from France in 1764], he won great popularity with his pamphlet What Is the Third Estate? (1789) and was elected to represent the Third Estate in the Estates-General. He led the movement to establish the National Assembly, and then served in the National Convention until the radical Jacobins seized control (1793). During the Directory, he served on the Council of Five Hundred (1795 - 99) and on the Directory itself (1799). He helped organize the military Coup of 18 - 19 Brumaire, which overthrew the Directory and brought Napoleon to power. After the monarchy's restoration (1815), he lived in exile in Belgium until 1830.

Indeed, the Jesuits are capable of organizing a military coup d'état (now underway in the American Empire). One recent example is the Sandinista Rebels in Nicaragua who overthrew a legitimate government, the revolution being led by Jesuit Fr. Fernando Cardenal, the foremost promoter of Marxist/Socialist/Communist "Liberation Theology." This same anti-Middle Class, Jesuit-authored and directed, "Liberation Theology" is now called "Black Theology" in the American Empire and is preached by extremely wealthy Jeremiah Wright—Barack Hussein Obama's firebrand, mulatto, hatefully racist, anti-White, "Christian pastor" for over twenty years—indicating that Wright is also backed by the American Jesuit Order. One such Jesuit Spiritual Coadjutor is Roman Catholic priest Michael Phleger, trained by Jesuits at Loyola University in Chicago.

Columbia Encyclopedia : Sieyès, Emmanuel Joseph

(ëmänüèl' zhôzëf' syäës') , 1748 - 1836, French revolutionary and statesman. He was a clergyman before the Revolution and was known as Abbé Sieyès. His pamphlet Qu'est-ce que le tiers état? [What is the third estate?] (1789), attacking noble and clerical privileges [the Jesuits having declared war on the anti-Jesuit priests and nobles of France after the Order's expulsion in 1764], was popular throughout France, and he was elected deputy from the Third Estate to the States-General of 1789. He advocated the formation of the national assembly, and participated in the writing of the Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen and the constitution of 1791 (see French Revolution). He made his chief contributions in 1789 - 1791 with the theory of national sovereignty and representation, and the distinction between active and passive citizens, which restricted the vote to men of property. As a member of the Convention he voted for the execution of King Louis XVI [the Black Pope having decreed the king's death for supporting the Protestant-Calvinist American War for Independence (1775-1783) and for the king's enforcing his grandfather's expulsion of the Order in 1764]. His prudent silence enabled him to live through the Reign of Terror, and after the overthrow of [Jesuit-trained] Maximilien Robespierre on 9 Thermidor (1794), Sieyès again became active in the government. In 1799 he entered the Directory. Later that year he conspired with Napoleon Bonaparte (see Napoleon I) in the overthrow of the Directory by the coup of 18 Brumaire. Sieyès became, with Bonaparte and Roger Ducos, one of the three provisional consuls. His sketch for the constitution of the year VIII was, however, changed in decisive points by Bonaparte, and Sieyès and Ducos were replaced (Dec., 1799) as consuls [to be the rulers of the Consulate]. He became senator and senator of the empire and, after the Bourbon restoration, lived in exile (1816–30) in Brussels. The name also appears as Sieyes.

For his political writings, he (Fr. Sieyes, S.J.) inspired the fanatic Frenchmen to spark the French Revolution. Fr. Sieyes voted for the execution of King Louis XVI of France and collaborated with Napoleon Bonaparte in launching a coup d'état. (The Order would repeat this same scenario in 1852 when, via another coup d'état, Napoleon Bonaparte III would be brought to power creating the Second French Empire to fight the wars of the Jesuit Order, including the Crimean War against "accursed" Christian Orthodox Russia; the occupation of Rome to protect the papacy from Freemasonic nationalists Giuseppe Garibaldi and Victor Immanuel II; and the occupation of Mexico to protect the political power of Rome from Freemasonic nationalist Benito Juarez.) Then, when Napoleon Bonaparte I was put into power, the Black Pope's Napoleonic Wars terrorizing the monarchs and raising havoc throughout Protestant and Roman Catholic Europe.

"The Jesuits are military organization, not a religious order. Their chief is a general of an army, not the mere father abbot of a monastery. And the aim of this organization is power – power in its most despotic exercise – absolute power, universal power, power to control the world by the volition of a single man [i.e., the Black Pope, the Superior General of the Jesuits]. Jesuitism is the most absolute of despotism and at the same time the greatest and most enormous of abuses . . .

"The [Superior] General of the Jesuits insists on being master, sovereign, over the sovereign. Wherever the Jesuits are admitted they will be master, cost what it may. . . Every act, every crime, however atrocious, is a meritorious work, if committed for the interest of the Society of the Jesuits, or by the order of the Superior General."

Napoleon Bonaparte (1769 - 1821) So, Napoleon Bonaparte said that . . . ! He knew the Jesuits well.

NAPOLEONIC WAR

“Between 1555 and 1931 the SOCIETY OF JESUS [i.e., the JESUITS] was expelled from at least 83 countries, city states and cities, for engaging in political intrigue and subversive plots against the welfare of the State, according from the records of a Jesuit priest of repute (Fr. Thomas J. Campbell, S. J.) . . . practically every instance of expulsion was for political intrigue, political infiltration, political subversion, and inciting to political insurrection.”

Jonas E.C. Shepherd (Protestant Canadian Historian)

“Here is a partial listing of some of the kings / queens and countries that expelled the Jesuits from their lands for political intrigues and assassinations.” - - (1) 1570 – Elizabeth I, Queen of England; (2) 1614 – Japan; (3) 1618 – the Kingdom of Bohemia; (4) 1716 – China; (5) 1719 – Peter the Great of Russia; (6) 1759 – King Joseph I of Portugal; (7) 1764 – King Louis XV of France; (8) 1816 – Russian Czar Alexander I expels the Jesuits from Moscow and St. Petersburg; (9) 1820 – Russian Czar Alexander I expels the Jesuits from all of Russia; (10) 1820, 1835, 1868 – Spain; (11) 1834 – Portugal; (12) 1848, 1859 – Italy; (13) 1848 – Switzerland; (14) 1872 – Guatemala; (15) 1872 – German-Prussian Empire; (16) 1873 – Mexico; (17) 1874 – Brazil; (18) 1875 – Ecuador and Colombia; (19) 1880, 1901 – France; (20) 1884 – Costa Rica; (21) 1901 – Portugal.”

Darryl Eberhart (Bible-Believing Protestant Historian, Researcher & Editor)

A History of The Gunpowder Plot: proves the plot was master-minded by the Jesuits. What if during those times, the Jesuits had successfully blown-up the British Parliament? It could have resulted into an English Civil War, which the Order later incited via King Charles I.

Just imagine, the Jesuits, famous for being the foremost religious fathers of the Roman Catholic Church, master-minded a plot to blow-up the British Parliament! Why did the Jesuits, during those times of Counter Reformation, hate the British Parliament? Is it because the British Parliament was manned by British Protestants, including anti-Jesuit, anti-papacy, pro-Bible, King James I himself!

Since this is the case, the bottom line for the Order is to incite religious wars, and the Jesuits' Vatican Library have authentic historical records for creating the First 30-Years War in Europe (1618~1648).

One of the outstanding privileges of the Jesuits, compared to other religious orders of the Roman Catholic Church, is that the Jesuits can wear civilian clothes, they can be involved in political systems like Constitutionlists, Lawyers, Senators (like Father Sieyes), Congressmen (like Fr. Drinan – a former U.S. Congressman), Doctors of medicine (like Dr. Robert Gallo, famous virologist for AIDS / HIV, Scientists (like Michael DeLisle Lyons who, with a “Q” clearance, developed the trigger for the American atomic bomb detonated on July 16, 1945 in New Mexico), Jesuits Seismologists and Jesuit Astronomers within key observatories, especially the Vatican Observatory in Rome. There are a vast majority of politicians, government officials, prime ministers, presidents and even justices who are educated and trained by the Jesuits such as Bill Clinton (Democrat) and Patrick Buchanan (Republican), known also as “Jesuit Temporal Co-Adjutors). Check out the Jesuit-educated and Jesuit-trained “alumni” of Edmund A. Walsh School Of Foreign Service at Jesuit Georgetown University in Washington, founded by fanatical Cold Warrior, Knight of Malta and Jesuit priest of the Fourth Vow, Edmund A. Walsh, S.J.

Example : Check the educational background of the Senators and Congressmen (the current Speaker of The House of Representatives, Nancy Pelosi, U.S. Senator Chris Dodd, House Minority Leader, U.S. Representative John Boehner, etc.) you will find many of them having been Jesuit-educated and trained.

There are some occasions that a Jesuit Father is being interviewed (in television news), a Jesuit Father being a constitutionalist, commenting about constitutions and political crisis. Jesuit Priest Stephen A. Privett spoke at the installment of House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and a Jesuit Priest Edward (Eddie) A. Reese opened in prayer for John McCain’s Republican National Convention in 2008. Roman Catholic Nancy Pelosi is an alumni of San Francisco University and the two sons of Southern Baptist John McCain were educated by Jesuits at Brophy College Preparatory in Phoenix, Arizona. Pelosi’s husband, Roman Catholic Paul F. Pelosi, is an alumni of Jesuit Georgetown University and McCain’s wife, Roman Catholic Cindy McCain, is a member of Brophy’s Board of Regents.

Jesuit Priest Stephen A. Privett
President of Jesuit San Francisco University
Speaker at Pelosi’s Installment as House Speaker

Jesuit Priest Edward (Eddie) A. Reese
President of Jesuit Brophy College Preparatory
Speaker at McCain’s Republican Nat. Conv.

Anytime the Jesuits are involved in anything, there is always a "hidden agenda" to further their "One World" empire of church, government and economy for the Antichrist.

Maria Merola

Website “The Berean Chronicles”

By : World Historians