Your Personal Omega Point

We are nearing the end of this manual, but we are also nearing the start of a completely new life. You may not even be aware of how much your way of thinking has already changed since commencing this journey.

Here is a reminder of the quote that started this entire manual. It was Marianne Williamson, who said this:

“Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us.

We ask ourselves, "Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented and fabulous?"

Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people will not feel insecure around you. We were born to manifest the glory of God that is within us. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same.

As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.” -- Marianne Williamson (often incorrectly stated as a quote from Nelson Mandela).¹

We have reached the stage where we tie all the various “Aha!” experiences we have enjoyed together, into a very powerful principle, by answering the question: “Why am I here?” In answering this question you will have reached your personal Omega Point, and if we can help you to do so your life will dramatically, almost magically rocket-propel itself from one of “playing small” to one that is “powerful beyond measure”.

Lofty words, we agree. And yet, the process is simple and results are nothing short of spectacular. It does take some mental discipline, thought and control, but if you have made it thus far, the rest should be a breeze.

What is The Omega Point?

The Omega point is a term originally coined by Pierre Teilhard de Chardin² to describe the aim towards which consciousness evolves. Frank J. Tipler³, also a supporter of the Omega point, has proposed that it is possible for intelligent beings to process and store an infinite amount of information in the Universe, if certain conditions are fulfilled.

In Fresh Wisdom, we use the term to mean the point of ultimate understanding, since the Greek ‘omega’ (as in alpha and omega) refers to the pinnacle of ultimate understanding. It is the definitive “Aha!” experience, when the purpose of life suddenly becomes clear.

According to many futurists, there is a sheath of information technology covering the planet, and this Technosphere is the material basis of the now awakening Noosphere - earth’s mental envelope or field. The word Noosphere derives from the Greek “noos”, or “nous”, and means mind, while “sphere”, or “spheria,” means globe. It is therefore the globe of thought, and includes all knowledge of collective humanity. This is a similar paradigm to Carl Jung’s collective unconscious.

If you are interested in reading more about this Technosphere and man’s awakening collective consciousness, see Awakening to the Omega Point: Chardin and the Noosphere.⁴ However, before you read the article, it is important that you understand our view on this Noosphere. We certainly agree that the concept of global consciousness exists; however reaching your personal Omega Point is the ability to break away from this mentally limiting bubble. By its very definition, the Noosphere described in the above-mentioned article is not a positive force, but the worst form of enslavement humankind could ever be subjected to.

In short, reaching your personal Omega Point, as described in Fresh Wisdom, requires the ability to:

- Accept the current state of your life, your environment, the planet, the Universe, your past, your beliefs and your (current) future aspirations;
- Identify the con’s in that image;
- Trash those con’s as worthless (or step outside of the bubble – the Noosphere);
- Define a new purpose, free of the limiting beliefs which previously held you back, and in so doing reach your Personal Omega Point.

² http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Omega_point

³ www.aleph.se/Trans/Global/Omega/

⁴ <http://omegapoint.org/modules/news/article.php?storyid=10>

In essence, reaching your personal Omega Point answers the question “Why am I here?” and this cannot be achieved while held captive by limiting beliefs.

Can you see now why we had to spend so much time identifying the erroneous beliefs early in earlier chapters? We had to encourage you to reach the point where you could objectively analyze everything you have previously accepted as absolute reality, so that you can dump the faulty lines of code in the program currently running in your mind. We are encouraging you to remove yourself from the destructive Noosphere.

Incidentally, in the next chapter we will discuss a process called The Ten Second Miracle, whereby in 10 seconds, you can do exactly that – dump the faulty lines of code. But once again, we are getting ahead of ourselves.

Omega Point Definition

Here is a succinct definition of the Omega Point. Note that the brevity of the definition of a concept that has Universal implications automatically precludes covering all aspects of the concept.

The Omega Point is the peak of a pyramid of ultimate understanding of the Universe and man’s purpose in that Universe at that point in time, without the influence of fables and traditions.

We must stress the phrase ‘at that point in time’. It is impossible for any human to possess and store all known knowledge. Therefore the Omega Point can be reached more than once during a lifetime, as your knowledge and understanding grows exponentially. It goes without saying, though, that reaching your first Omega Point is a mind-blowing, life-altering experience.

Let us try to explain this diagrammatically.

The Pinnacle of Understanding

During your Fresh Wisdom journey thus far, you may have experienced many “Aha!” moments. If you remember back to the first chapter (with the picture of the old and young woman), we explained that each “Aha!” experience is a paradigm shift – a new world view, or a new way of receiving, filtering and processing information based on the presence or otherwise of preconditions. We encourage you to read that short chapter on page Error! Bookmark not defined. again if you need a refresher on conditioning – it is important groundwork to understand the principles we are about to discuss.

Each of those “Aha!” experiences can be described as a mini-triangle of learning, leading towards The Omega Point.

Imagine a pyramid made up of a set of smaller pyramids and other tightly-fitting geometric shapes. Each shape within the pyramid is crucial for a stable pyramid – remove one, or change its shape, and the entire pyramid collapses.

The Triangular Theory of Consciousness

This same concept can be applied to the human brain.

From extensive studies in hospitals relating to mindsets and rates of recovery (led by Dr Ian Weinberg,⁵) it was discovered that specific areas in the brain appear to be programmed for receptivity of the particular environmental entity [what appears in your life]. Each successively higher group represents a more specific representation of what that mind perceives; thus representing in the brain a microcosm of the entire environment.

As an example: viewing a tree creates an impression in the mind of its existence. If not viewed through a distorting lens, it is an accurate representation. Therefore the tree ‘exists’ in the mind.

⁵ ‘Quantum-determinism – an Integrative Model of Holistic Consciousness’ by Dr Ian Weinberg. Published in Quantum Leap, Sygma Books, 1998

This principle applies to all of life. Correct perception leads to perfect understanding. There exists a process of integration in the brain.

Imagine a set of ten triangles along a base line: the apex of each representing the whole.

Now imagine three triangles above the lower ten, each in turn being a summation of the triangles below. The apexes of each of these three triangles are now summed up in one triangle above the three, representing the summation of the three and thus the final summation of the original ten.

This represents the process of 'integrating' or 'nodal representation'.

The final integration at the node of the top triangle represents Omega Point or the final integration node.

An even closer representation is one in three dimensions, where the triangles are cones.

So, the best model is one where there are many cones, close fitted, supporting a pyramid of similar ones. This represents taking into account all the factors impacting an environment, giving a truer summation. The node of each lower order being represented in the higher, focusing on the final node: Omega Point.

The worst model is a series of unrelated cones attempting to support others. Elements which do not fit or do not match with a particular bias are filtered out, rejected, leaving a very poor representation of the environment.

This is typical of people who are strongly held by tradition or other people's opinions and who are not able to comfortably integrate new information, since it does not coincide with preconceived frameworks.

But, the results of the medical studies indicated that biases affect perception, distorting reality.

There are basically 3 types of mindset, each having their own limitations or freedoms:

1. No Filters: This is a mindset that can be represented by a whole series of perfectly formed cones supporting ever higher levels of condensed information cones; leading ultimately to a pinnacle cone representing Omega Point or perfect understanding.

When reviewing new information, the mindset is not influenced by predetermined views, but perceives the matter without trying to make it fit preconceived ideas.

This is the gold standard, with no bias when interpreting new information. This type holds a true reflection of the external environment and is able to deal in a balanced manner with the external changing environment.

2. Tall Cones: This type can be represented by a base of tall cones that cannot support ever-increasing levels of other cones, since they do not contact the bases of higher levels, causing them to fall in between the base cones, forming a disjointed pattern.

Thus it represents a mind that is not integrated. Sensed information is distorted to fit or it is deleted completely, not allowing the mind to form a true perspective of the world.

It manifests in insecurity and driven personalities. When forced out of the comfort zone of islands this person becomes insecure; momentarily loses their way resulting in a feeling of temporary purposelessness which also results (according to the studies this was based on) an impairment of immune function. Mind states thus do affect states of health.

3. Excessive Filters: This type of mind map consists of many small un-integrated islands, and is not able to support any higher levels. It has difficulty in making any sense of the environment.

In summary, the more accurate the assessment of the environment by an individual, the more appropriate and harmonious that mind is with the nuances of the changing environment.

In this situation of no filters, success of one's actions is guaranteed - reinforcing further positive feedback. The immune system is enhanced and the individual experiences a vital existence for a long period.

This would indicate a person who sought truth at any cost to their own discomfort. In other words, the more regularly an individual goes outside their comfort zones, the more in-touch with reality that person is.

Another person, when forced out of the comfort zone of islands, refuses to accept, rejects, becomes insecure, and momentarily loses their way, temporary purposelessness, impairment of immune function.

In conclusion, if an individual can correctly view their external environment and they are on an upward path of self-actualization and self-transcendence, they are able to reach their personal Omega Point.

This principle applies to all of life. Correct perception leads to perfect understanding.

Side Note: It should come as no surprise then that pyramids have long been the favorite symbol of secret societies, representing the pinnacle of understanding.

Readers may be familiar with the symbol on the reverse of the US $1 bill, showing an all-seeing eye atop an incomplete pyramid.

Space and time limitations preclude us from explaining the symbolism behind this diagram – if you are interested in reading more, see The All Seeing Eye.<sup>6</sup>

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs

At this point it is important to discuss Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs<sup>7</sup>, because if your basic needs are not met, it is unlikely you will achieve the Omega Point.

Maslow posited a hierarchy of human needs based on two groupings: Deficiency Needs and Growth Needs.

Within the Deficiency Needs, each lower need must be met before moving to the next higher level. Once each of these needs has been satisfied, if at some future time a deficiency is detected, the individual will act to remove the deficiency.

The first Deficiency Needs consist of four levels:

1. Physiological: hunger, thirst, bodily comforts, etc.;
2. Safety and Security: avoiding danger;
3. Belongingness and Love: affiliate with others, be accepted; and
4. Esteem: to achieve, be competent, gain approval and recognition.

An individual is ready to act upon the Growth Needs only when the Deficiency Needs are met. In other words, it is unlikely you will be concerned about the beauty of your garden if you are constantly hungry. Once the basic needs are met, that individual can move on to the higher levels.

There are two levels of Growth Needs:

5. Cognitive: to know, to understand, and explore;
6. Aesthetic: symmetry, order, and beauty.

Maslow then identified further Growth Needs:

7. Self-Actualization: to find self-fulfillment and realizing of one's full potential;
8. Self-Transcendence: to connect to something beyond the ego or to help others find self-fulfillment and realize their potential.

Maslow described Self-Actualization as follows: A musician must make music, the artist must paint, a poet must write, if he is to be ultimately at peace with himself. What a man can be, he must be.

Maslow writes of self-actualizing people that:

- They embrace the facts and realities of the world (including themselves) rather than denying or avoiding them.
- They are spontaneous in their ideas and actions.
- They are creative.
- They are interested in solving problems; this often includes the problems of others. Solving these problems is often a key focus in their lives.
- They feel a closeness to other people, and generally appreciate life.

<sup>7</sup> http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Maslow's\_hierarchy\_of\_needs

- They have a system of morality that is fully internalized and independent of external authority.
- They judge others without prejudice, in a way that can be termed objective.

Sounds like Maslow was describing a Fresh Thinker, does it not?

Maslow's basic position is that as one becomes more self-actualized and self-transcendent, one develops wisdom and automatically knows how to cope in a wide variety of situations. Maslow's ultimate conclusion is that the highest levels of self-actualization are transcendent in their nature. This may be one of his most important contributions to the study of human behavior and motivation.

Maslow's hierarchy can be used to describe the kinds of information that individual's seek at different levels.

Coping Information – is sought by individuals at the lowest level who need methods and answers in order to meet their most basic needs of sustaining life.

Helping Information – is sought by individuals wanting to meet their needs in a quicker manner, for example, improving the process of acquiring food. Individuals at the coping level need helping information.

Enlightening Information – is sought by individuals wanting to belong within a functioning, relatively safe environment. Quite often this can be found in books or other materials on relationship development.

Empowering Information - is sought by people at the esteem level. They are looking for information on how their ego can be developed.

Edifying Information – is sought by individuals wanting to connect to something beyond themselves, or assisting others in enlightening themselves.

Once again, unless you believe your Cognitive and Aesthetic Needs have been met, or are in the process of being met, it is unlikely that achieving your personal Omega Point is just around the corner. Fresh Wisdom assists in providing the required Enlightening, Empowering and Edifying Information to achieve your personal Omega Point.

This is a further reason Fresh Wisdom covers the 5 Essential Pillars of Fulfilled Living: unless you achieve full understanding (without the influence of fables and traditions) in each one of the 5 Pillars, your pyramid is likely to be unstable.

A little later we will cover the 5 Pillars again, in relation to The Omega Point.

Additional Fresh Wisdom Axioms

In Chapter Error! Reference source not found., Error! Reference source not found., we introduced 12 Axioms by which all Fresh Thinkers lead their life. Instead of repeating all 12 Axioms, here are two which are relevant to this discussion:

Axiom #8 – Purpose

The uninitiated masses almost never know their real reasons for doing anything. Fresh Thinkers, in contrast, never accept anything without questioning and understanding it. They also understand that their life has a purpose, even though their purpose may not yet have been fully defined or understood.

Axiom #9 – Religion

Religions and cults are man-made inventions designed to allow an elitist priesthood to con value out of those that follow them. Fresh Thinkers do not blindly follow any man-made religion.

In addition to the 12 Axioms already covered, there are two additional Axioms which are required to assist in reaching the Omega Point. These are:

Axiom # 13 – Biblical World View

A Fresh Thinker accepts without question the Biblical World View and that the only scientifically, empirically proven source document is the Bible. This book is not at variance with any proven scientific fact and shows an internal concordance of knowledge of the world of science which the initial writers could not have had, except for its inspiration by an Outside Mind. The Biblical World View is thus the only scientifically proven paradigm (way of looking at life), and thus represents a stable pyramid.

Axiom # 14 – Modern Science Distorts the Biblical Message

A Fresh Thinker understands that the theme of the Bible is that of a gigantic Cosmic conflict between positive and negative forces. We therefore accept that any distortion of the Biblical World View is accomplished by negative forces intent on preventing the achievement of a personal Omega Point.

These are powerful axioms, and no doubt come as a surprise considering the material we have already covered on religions. But remember, we were discussing man-made religions, not the Bible. We include Christianity in the stable of man-made religions, even though we are acknowledging the Bible as the only reliable source document.

Sounds contradictory, does not it? Let us look a little deeper. We are going to have to skim over certain profound principles in the next few pages, in the interests of keeping this chapter concise. However, we make far more detailed scientific evidence available in our publication: The Greater Picture: Truth, Freedom and Omega Point.<sup>8</sup>

Biblical World View Compared to Major Religions

We must ask, yet again, for you to put aside any pre-conditioning you may have about any religion. Remember that whatever religion you may have followed to date (including not following any religion) is a con. This will be challenging, since we are asking you to consider the Bible as a science handbook, instead of a religious text. If you have followed no particular religion to date, you may have difficulty accepting the use of the Bible as the source document. If you have ‘been religious’ to date, you may find some of the concepts we are about to cover difficult to accept, because you have never heard them before. If at any time your comfort zone feels threatened, go back and read The Triangular Theory of Consciousness on page 5.

Remember, what we are trying to achieve is your personal Omega Point, and no religion to date has facilitated that process.

Side Note: At the risk of repeating ourselves, the following discussion has nothing to do with Christianity, or any other religion. It has everything to do with Science, Quantum Physics, the E5 and the Omega Point. The only way you can benefit from the discussion is to remove any religious preconceptions (pre-conditioning) that will cloud your understanding.

If we were to summarize the one key difference between the world’s major religions<sup>9</sup>, it would be thus:

Jesus Christ is the only being to have materialized from another dimension into this dimension, and then returned to the dimension He came from.

While there are significant similarities between major religions, this one fact is what sets the Biblical World View apart from any other belief system. The impact of this feat has a direct bearing on achieving your personal Omega Point. Let us examine why, using science as our base.

Quantum Physics

In plain English, Quantum Physics (also called Quantum Mechanics) is the study of the really, really small sub-particles that make up atoms. School physics teach that the three smallest particles of matter are the proton, neutron and electron. Today, Quantum Physicists have discovered a multitude of yet smaller particles that make up atoms, called quarks, leptons, gluons, neutrinos, muons and other even stranger sounding names.

But the strangest, inexplicable thing about these tiny particles is the manner in which they behave, since these particles do not obey all previously known scientific laws – they operate randomly, and scientists do not like randomness.

At times they behave like particles (by vibrating) and at times like waves (by oscillating).

These particles often disappear, and no-one has been able to identify where they disappear to – some say they disappear into a parallel Universe.

These particles have also been shown to appear in two or more places simultaneously.

In short, scientists are somewhat baffled, and no-one has yet been able to provide a succinct explanation for Quantum Physics, or how it affects our daily lives. But many have understood that there is a powerful secret hidden in Quantum Physics. Niels Bohr has said “Those who are not shocked when they first come across quantum mechanics cannot possibly have understood it.”<sup>10</sup>

Some have stated that Quantum Physics is a physics of possibilities, meaning that reality could exist in different forms at the same time. Others have gone further to say that Quantum Physics proves the existence of parallel realities and that these particles alternate between different forms of reality.

Others have gone as far as demonstrating by neuroscience and psychophysics that we do not perceive the world as it actually is, but as the brain computes it most probably to be. In other words, two people surveying the same environment perceive things differently. Which one is experiencing ‘reality’?

Needless to say, this is a confusing study of science, given our current understanding. Want to try it for yourself? Here’s a good place to start: A Lazy Layman's Guide to Quantum Physics.<sup>12</sup>

The Bible and Quantum Physics

In Chapter Error! Reference source not found. we went to some lengths to explain the scientific basis of the Bible. Many have tried to scientifically disprove the Bible, and yet it has stood the test of time by not once being at variance with any proven scientific fact.

We also concluded that the individual authors credited with writing separate books in the Bible could not have written what they did without Divine Guidance. It would then be a natural conclusion that the Bible is ultimately authored by the same Creator who brought this Universe into existence. It would stand to reason, then, that the same author wrote the rules for Quantum Physics, and already understands what scientists are grappling with right now. The author understands the concept of ‘parallel realities’, since this is part of the Creator’s creation.

We are going to repeat that last thought, because it is important to comprehend before going further (you are going to be shocked in the next section).

The Creator wrote the rules for Quantum Physics, and already understands what scientists are grappling with right now. The Creator understands the concept of ‘parallel realities’, since this is part of the Creator’s Universe.

Jesus and Quantum Physics

In Chapter Error! Reference source not found. we touched on Jesus’ Secret Message by providing an article written by someone who has nothing to do with Freedom Technology. We introduced the concept to prepare your mind for the fact that perhaps Jesus came to earth for a reason very different for that taught by Christianity. The theory of a bicameral mind, which was used as the basis for the article, is far from proven or accepted by a wide range of specialists in the field of mind and brain development. This theory is sometimes a useful tool to demonstrate some aspects, but not a conclusive or proven theory.

But back to our point, it does appear as if the person of Jesus was carrying a secret message. What could that secret be?

Here is a profound thought – profound because it relates directly to our reaching the Omega Point.

Jesus Christ came to this earth to prove Quantum Physics. He did this by materializing from another dimension (a parallel Universe?) into this dimension. He showed us that there is another version of reality (by walking on water, by raising the dead, by turning water into wine and by performing other miracles which contradict the known scientific laws in this dimension).

Quantum Physicists agree that, theoretically and based on the behavior of sub-atomic particles, it should be possible to walk on water. And this is precisely what Jesus proved more than 2,000 years ago! He came with a secret message: to prove that another dimension does exist – the same concept Quantum Physicists are struggling with right now.

Jesus did not come to ‘save mankind from their sins’, as we have been taught to believe by man-made religions, but to prove that we can create our own reality – again, this is a concept Quantum Physicists are grappling with right now

This is getting a little heavy, so let us back up a little.

Freedom Technology and Quantum Physics

There are a few core Fresh Wisdom Axioms which bear repeating at this point. This is to encourage you to think for yourself, instead of simply accepting another man-made ‘religion’.

Axiom #1 – Reducing Controls

In order to become free, a Fresh Thinker greatly reduces the external controls placed on their life. They will not allow themselves to be controlled by anyone (including Freedom Technology).

Understand that we are not forcing any controlling thought process on you. Rather, we are encouraging you to think about the existence of a reality which is different to what has already been forced on you.

Axiom #2 – Avoid Con Artists

Con artists seek to maximize the volume of life's pleasures which flow their way, by conning money, energy, time and talent from other people.

What we have just stated (that Jesus came not to save mankind from their sins, but to prove Quantum Physics) may not be true, but we believe it implicitly after years of careful study. We encourage you to critically examine this claim, as we absolutely do not wish to impose another con on you. We encourage you to listen for the ring of truth, and test everything you have read to date.

Axiom #6 – Rules and Regulations

Fresh Thinkers live by their own set of rational, coherent and internally generated rules, which may, or may not agree with the externally imposed laws.

We are not in any way forcing you to accept any new paradigms or rules. What you choose to do with this information is entirely up to you and your conscience.

Axiom #9 – Religion

Religions and cults are man-made inventions designed to allow an elitist priesthood to con value out of those that follow them. Fresh Thinkers do not blindly follow any man-made religion.

Please understand that we are not in the process of introducing a new religion for which we are seeking followers from whom we can con value. We are however interested in opening eyes and stimulating independent thought. The field of Quantum Physics is a profoundly exciting study, made many times more so when Jesus' life and miracles are introduced into the equation.

Axiom #11 – Responsibility

Responsibility for what happens in the life of a Fresh Thinker rests solely with that individual.

Responsibility now does lie with you as to what your reaction will be. You can either reject these thoughts outright, or choose to investigate for yourself whether there may be some validity in them. Whatever your choice, there will be consequences.

In short, we have reminded you of these axioms so that you are 100% convinced that we are not trying to force a con on you.

The Matrix

You may be familiar with the 1999 movie, The Matrix,<sup>13</sup> starring Keanu Reeves as Neo and Laurence Fishburne as Morpheus. This is by far the best fictional explanation of the concept we are trying to explain. If you have not seen the movie, we highly encourage you to do so, as it will help come to grips with the concept of a parallel Universe and Quantum Physics. (Sequels to The Matrix I seem to have lost the plot with regards to Quantum Physics – perhaps the writers were forced to drop their otherwise profound message.)

Very briefly, the movie is about a computer hacker who learns from mysterious rebels about the true nature of his reality and his role in the war against the controllers of it. But the underlying plot and storyline are far more profound. You may previously have read articles on religious messages embedded in The Matrix, but these<sup>14</sup> are nothing compared to what you are about to read now. Do not worry, we will not give the plot away – we will simply quote from the movie.

Quotes from The Matrix

NEO: "I know what you are trying to do!"

MORPHEUS: "I am trying to free your mind, Neo. But I can only show you the door. You are the one that has to walk through it. You have to let it all go, Neo: fear, doubt and disbelief. Free your mind!"

Is that not what Jesus came to do – free us from the bondage of the law? Free us from artificial systems that enslave us? Free us from those who wish to control us? And even Jesus only ever showed his audience the door. The choice was always left to the individual as to what action to take. Allowing freedom of choice is the greatest expression of love any individual can show.

NEO: "This isn't real?"

MORPHEUS: "What is real? How do you define real? If you are talking about your senses, what you feel, taste, smell, or see; then all you are talking about are electrical signals interpreted by your brain."

¹⁴ http://atheism.about.com/library/FAQs/religion/blrel_matrix.htm

More and more, Quantum Physicists are beginning to accept that reality is purely what the observer's brain chooses to interpret. They tell us that the average brain processes 400 billion pieces of information per second, but we are only aware of 2,000. Where is the other reality represented by the remaining 399 billion and some pieces of information? Perhaps in a parallel Universe – an alternate reality?

MORPHEUS: "You are here because you know something. What you know, you cannot explain. You felt it your entire life. There is something wrong with the world. You do not know what it is, but it is there, like a splinter in your mind, driving you mad. It is this feeling that has brought you to me. Do you know what I am talking about?"

NEO: "The Matrix?"

MORPHEUS: "Do you want to know what it is? Have you ever had a dream, that you were so sure was real? What if you were unable to wake from that dream? How would you know the difference between the Dream world and the Real world?"

By now you are aware of the con of the world we live in. Imagine if we could wake up from this dream, and step into the real world? Reverse roles just for a moment. Remember the last vivid (enjoyable) dream you had? What if THAT was the real world, and this is the dream world? This is not science fiction – highly intelligent professors, academics, philosophers and scientists are spending billions of dollars to get to the bottom of this. If they are taking this so seriously, shouldn't you?

MORPHEUS: "The Matrix is everywhere, it is all around us, here even in this room. You can see it out of your window, or on your television. You feel it when you go to work, or go to church, or pay your taxes. It is the world that has been pulled over your eyes to blind you from the truth."

NEO: "What truth?"

MORPHEUS: "That you are a slave, Neo. That you, like everyone else, was born into bondage. . . kept inside a prison that you cannot smell, or touch. A prison for your mind. Unfortunately no one can be told what the Matrix is. You have to see it for yourself."

Has Fresh Wisdom helped you see the real-world matrix for yourself? We are now going far beyond identifying the cons we have already covered. Can you see that, even though you have become significantly more enlightened than when you began, you are STILL trapped in only one Universe, when there exist many parallel Universes? Mmmm, this is becoming stranger and stranger.

MORPHEUS: "What is the Matrix? Control. The Matrix is a computer generated Dreamworld built to keep us under control, in order to change a human being into a battery of energy. We are the energy source easily renewable and completely recyclable. All they needed to control this mind was something to occupy our mind. And they built a prison out of our past; wired it to our brain and turned us into slaves."

Forget for a moment the sci-fi setting of the movie, and apply this to your life. Have you not been controlled by all manner of distractions? And we are not talking about the obvious distractions like TV and sport. What about your religion? Your hobbies? Your friends? Your political involvement? Your salaried position? Any activity which occupies your mind is potentially a distraction placed there to control your mind.

MORPHEUS: "The Matrix is a system, Neo. That system is our enemy. When you are inside you look around. What do you see? Teachers, lawyers, businessmen: the very minds of the people that we are trying to save. But until we do, these people are still a part of that system. You have to understand most of these people are not ready to be unplugged and many of them are so inert, so hopelessly dependent on the system, that they will fight any change."

Remember Axiom 4 – All Are Not Equal? Be careful who you share this information with, unless you are prepared for your audience to 'fight any change'.

HEAD AGENT ['the baddie' - pointing to our modern society]: "Have you ever stared at it? Marvel at its beauty, its genius? Billions of people living their lives - oblivious. Do you know that the first Matrix was designed to be a perfect human world, with no suffering, where everyone would be happy? It was a disaster. No one would accept the program. Entire crops were lost. Some believed that we lacked the programming language to define the perfect world."

HEAD AGENT: Do you hear Morpheus? I am going to be honest with you. I hate this place. This zoo. This prison. This reality. I must get out of here. I must get free.

Is getting free of this reality not what you must do? Could it be that Jesus came to show us just how to do so and that there is another reality to escape to?

NEO: What are you trying to tell me, that I can dodge bullets?

MORPHEUS: No Neo. I'm trying to tell you that when you are ready, you will not have to.

That is the mindset that Fresh Wisdom is encouraging you to adopt. Not to fight the system, not to dodge the tax man, not to resist the New World Order¹⁵ or any other form of globalization. Simply play life by your own rules. Avoid situations where bullets may be flying around in slow motion, not dodge them.

There are many more quotes we could use from the movie, but you probably get the point. We have intentionally left out two or three particularly juicy quotes that will send shivers down your spine when you watch the movie with this mindset. Even if you have seen it a dozen times before, go and watch this movie as soon as you can!

Why is Jesus' Message a Secret?

At this point a number of obvious questions raise their ugly heads:

- Why have religions not made the connection between Jesus, the science of the Bible, Quantum Physics, parallel realities and the Omega Point?
- What is the short-cut to the Omega Point?
- Why is the message secret, or why is it made so difficult for us to understand?

There are three reasons for this.

Reason 1 – Conflict Between Positive and Negative

Does it not make sense that in the Cosmic battle between Positive and Negative, Good and Evil, Yin and Yang, that the negative force will employ every means possible to keep us from reaching the point of ultimate understanding? The battle that is in progress has as its focus, control of our minds.

If the positive force were to step in and right these wrongs, would that not be removing the element of free choice – the freedom of choice being the greatest display of love?

Reason 2 – Proving Responsibility

Handing the keys to understanding of the power of Jesus' message to any unqualified individual is akin to handing the keys to your brand new motor vehicle to a 16-year old teenage boy, together with a bottle of vodka and an invitation to 'have fun'.

We are to prove our responsibility, and our commitment to do something with the information, before full understanding is given to us.

Accordingly, a giant obstacle course has been laid out before us, including the entire collection of con's we have been subject to. Our ability to step out of our comfort zone and navigate through the obstacle course is what proves our commitment.

Reason 3 – The Process of Preparation

There is no short-cut to the Omega Point. Do not for a minute think that by reading to the end of this chapter you will have reached your personal Omega Point. The journey and the lessons learnt along the way are far more important than the destination. The reason we are currently in this dimension is for training in preparation for the next dimension. Training in understanding and control of the Universe and dealing with the two forces of positive and negative that are inherent in the system.

What we have tried to do is provide a map to speed the process of finding the start of the Omega Point. The rest of the journey is totally up to you, although we will help as far as this is possible.

Reaching the Omega Point

The Omega Point. Does it exist? Is it attainable? If so, where and when?

*Jesus said to him, I am the Way and the Truth and the Life.*¹⁶

¹⁵ www.threeworldwars.com/nwo.htm

So, it appears that absolute Truth does exist somewhere. But can we attain to it?

*And you will know the Truth, and the Truth will set you free.*¹⁷

*Therefore let us go on and get past the elementary stage in the teachings and doctrine of Christ (the Messiah), advancing steadily toward the completeness and perfection that belong to spiritual maturity.*¹⁸

*His intention was the perfecting and the full equipping of the saints (His consecrated people), [that they should do] the work of ministering toward building up Christ's body (the church), [That it might develop] until we all attain oneness in the faith and in the comprehension of the [full and accurate] knowledge of the Son of God, that [we might arrive] at really mature manhood (the completeness of personality which is nothing less than the standard height of Christ's own perfection), the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ and the completeness found in Him.*¹⁹

It appears that we can attain the truth.

When Will We Reach The Omega Point?

*And I am convinced and sure of this very thing, that He Who began a good work in you will continue until the day of Jesus Christ [right up to the time of His return], developing [that good work] and perfecting and bringing it to full completion in you*²⁰.

It is a process. Some attain to different levels. We are all at our personal positions along the way. But it appears that it may not be attained in this lifetime. Solomon was one individual who progressed very far on this journey.

How Do We Reach The Omega Point?

*This is why I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the Truth. Everyone who is of the Truth [who is a friend of the Truth, who belongs to the Truth] hears and listens to My voice.*²¹

*But when He, the Spirit of Truth (the Truth-giving Spirit) comes, He will guide you into all the Truth (the whole, full Truth).*²²

*If any of you is deficient in wisdom, let him ask of the giving God [Who gives] to everyone liberally and ungrudgingly, without reproaching or faultfinding, and it will be given him.*²³

So, it appears, unless He specifically chooses you to be able to understand Truth, tough luck! You may, of course, ask. (And that would be acknowledging He exists.)

This may seem totally unreasonable, but remember Axiom 7 – Fairness? A Fresh Thinker understands and accepts that the world is and always will be an unfair place. We do not squander energy debating why this is – we simply accept it as a given.

Why Aim for The Omega Point?

*The beginning of Wisdom is: get Wisdom! [For skilful and godly Wisdom is the principal thing.]*²⁴

*The reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord [actually believing in Him] is the beginning (the chief and choice part) of Wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight and understanding.*²⁵

*But rather what we are setting forth is a wisdom of God once hidden [from the human understanding] and now revealed to us by God--[that wisdom] which God devised and decreed before the ages for our glorification [to lift us into the glory of His presence].*²⁶

If the Truth will set us free, what is freedom?

The Meaning of Freedom

The freedom Jesus offers is far more than the freedom achieved through political or revolutionary methods. It is freedom from the state of bondage to sin (the matrix) in which all human beings find themselves,²⁷ freedom from domination by the fallen angel Satan,²⁸ and freedom from every aspect of death.²⁹ That is the kind of freedom which is offered by Christ - which lasts not only in this life but for all eternity. This is a truly revolutionary freedom - infinitely transcending anything which governments or guerrilla leaders can offer.

It presents a purpose to this life: preparation for a future existence in an expanded dimension.

Where Do We Find This Freedom?

*Your Word is Truth.*³⁰

It appears we can start with His Word. Then the Force takes over at some point. So, we must start with the Bible.

As the proofs of past foretelling of events and their fulfillment have been evidence of His control, so future events will be demonstrated to tie in with the predicted in such a way as to leave absolutely no doubt of the inter-connectedness within, and the reality of, the Quantum Spectrum and its absolutes of pre-planning and ordering of the Universe, by an Outside-of-the-System Initiator.

Get to know Him better through His unique Message (the Bible) to you, His Greatest Miracle! Discover your real self. Welcome to Ultimate Reality. You have been presented with the Omega Point. Now what are you going to do with it?

*I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows).*³¹

The 5 Fresh Wisdom Pillars and the Omega Point

Hopefully now it is becoming clear how every one of the 5 Fresh Wisdom Pillars of Fulfilled Living is essential to reaching your personal Omega Point. Each pillar is a tightly knit element in the pyramid leading to full understanding, and each Pillar interacts with others. Each Pillar must be understood fully in order to build a solid world view.

In the next few weeks, the full impact of what we have discussed thus far will become more meaningful to you, as your mind 'integrates' the various nodes we have presented. Until then, here is a reminder of the 5 Pillars, and specifically how they relate to reaching your personal Omega Point:

1. Health & Longevity: Once you are excited about this concept of parallel realities, you may realize that living free from pain and discomfort to at least age 120 is the very least you will want to achieve. There is so much to learn, and so little time. In addition, we may have squandered so much of our life already on frivolous activities, so there is a catch up process required. In addition, we have to prove our worth for the next Dimension, and that may take some doing – we need all the time we can get!
2. Love-life or Relationship principles and skills: We have already covered the significance of making love as a preparation for The Grand Affair – our love affair with God. Your relationship in this dimension has little to do with how happy you are, or how happy your partner is – it has everything to do with preparing you for the ultimate relationship when Jesus returns.
3. Financial Freedom: Very few employers will want to employ someone older than 65, never mind 100 or 120. So developing the skills required for a passive income is vital. In addition, your retirement fund is unlikely to continue funding your extended life sufficiently.
4. Metaphysical Truths: As we have hopefully shown, many metaphysical truths have been hidden from us, either by design, or because we were too lazy to go looking. Hopefully Fresh Wisdom has given you a new framework, a new way of looking at the world around us. Now it is your task to research further, and in so doing expand your understanding.
5. Sovereignty and Privacy strategies: Hopefully we have shown just how fickle man-made laws are. But we are still required to live in this repressive society and obey the laws of the land. The mindset you have now achieved is one that will allow you to remain relatively unseen – under the radar – as you go about your new life purpose.

As you can see, the 5 Pillars really are all interrelated, culminating in reaching your Personal Omega Point.

This chapter has included our most powerful principles to date, and in essence the whole point of Fresh Wisdom. We would be surprised if you are able to fully grasp all the concepts in one sitting – it has taken us a combined 80-person years to do so. May we suggest that you put the material aside for a few days and read it

²⁷ John 8:34-36, 41-44

²⁸ 1 John 3:8; Mark 3:27

²⁹ Hebrews 2:14-15

³⁰ John 17:17

³¹ John 10:10

again and again. We hope that as you open your mind to this new concept you will understand what a wonderful life lies ahead of you.

No nation ancient or modern ever lost the liberty of freely speaking, writing, or publishing their sentiments, but forthwith lost their liberty in general and became slaves. – John P. Zenger

There is a wonderful mythical law of nature that the three things we crave most in life -- happiness, freedom, and peace of mind -- are always attained by giving them to someone else. - Peyton Conway March

Liberty, taking the word in its concrete sense, consists in the ability to choose. – Simone Weil

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. – Wendell Phillips

If you were all alone in the universe with no one to talk to, no one with which to share the beauty of the stars, to laugh with, to touch, what would be your purpose in life? It is other life, it is love, which gives your life meaning. This is harmony. We must discover the joy of each other, the joy of challenge, the joy of growth. – Mitsugi Saotome

The secret of joy in work is contained in one word - excellence. To know how to do something well is to enjoy it. – Pear l S. Buck
