The Ten Second Miracle

The Ten Second Miracle is a logical next step from our discussion on the Omega Point.

The following article is adapted from Neo-Tech Principles<sup>1</sup> by Ron Robinson<sup>2</sup>, and is a necessary exercise to complete before forging ahead to create your new wealth. While the miracle can be performed in ten seconds, it requires a fair amount of preparation, hence the preceding material in this manual.

The Ten Second Miracle

Start your journey into the eternal sunshine of a spotlessly-honest mind. In just ten seconds:

- You are going to shrink bogus authorities to vanishing points;
- You are going to shrink ignorance and superstition, orthodoxy and fundamentalism, hatred and intolerance to vanishing points;
- You are going to shrink the sociopathic duet of religion and politics to vanishing points, leaving bogus clergy, career politicians, lawyers and judges with no honor, glory, or dignity;
- You are going to eliminate dishonesty, irrationality, and injustice;
- You are going to send bogus external authorities who spiritually impoverish and then physically kill everyone to the dustbin of history;
- You are going to experience open-ended prosperity, health well into your second century, and romantic happiness;
- You are going to integrate honesty with facts in reality and natural law to undermine, and then exploit the hoax of the anti-civilization destruction, and discover personal powers to build a civilization of open ended prosperity and happiness;
- You are going to change your views, and your psychology. Your new powers of consciousness are going to come from linear-digital processing, not from the circular-analog thinking of a reality that was created for you
- You are going break free of and eliminate parasitical external authority induced mysticisms that undermine both your short and long range prospects for joy and happiness. This external authority is achieved through a bizarrely irrational transfer of your value production to a handful of elite for obscene unearned power, glory, and wealth. This wealth is obtained not by producing values, but by usurping and draining billions via a fictional mind-created false economy designed to rob you of the wealth derived from your productive efforts, while ravaging entire industries, businesses, and professions;
- By removing excess body weight you are going to free up energy you did not realize you had, and easily accomplish tasks that previously seemed difficult because of the unnecessary expenditures of energy spent maneuvering over mountains of mind created realities, by shrinking them into trivial nonsense points with no basis in reality;
- You are going to start growing more youthful;
- You are going to remove unnecessary and contrived guilt foisted upon your shoulders by malevolent criminal-minded individuals whose survival depends on coercive manipulations of truths by usurping your natural thinking process and productive efforts for their malevolent unearned power, unreal wealth, and unearned glory. They will vanish into the dustbin;
- You are going to dump mystical altruisms that rob you of your natural power and return to that incorruptible child of the past to discover the life you were meant to live, and discover a new vehicle for ultimate longevity, unlimited liberty, and happiness;
- You are going to experience an increase in your productive capabilities by eliminating unnatural reliance on external mystical beliefs propagated by incestuously corrupt and religious, political, and educational institutions, and will gain power to accomplish difficult tasks easily as your power of free agency self-determinism is released by breaking down non-existent mind created barriers that turn you into fearful conformists and prevent you from achieving your potential by stifling your ability to create limitless wealth and happiness through mystic-free value production and wealth creation;
- You are going to gain the power to identify facts in reality, easily recognize previously conceived obstacles not as barriers, but valuable assets to be exploited to find solutions that provide ever-increasing values for mankind, and that allow you to easily move around these mind-created obstacles to solve problems while others struggle in their attempts to overcome the obstructions that have been created for them, and prevent their forward progress, and then out-compete others in all areas of life.

But first, we need to identify the anti-civilization matrix that holds you back from a guiltless pursuit of life, liberty, and happiness. To fix the vehicle, it is first necessary to identify the faulty components that bring the vehicle to a halt. Below are some of those faulty components of the anti-civilization matrix:

Educational Systems in which tax exempt foundations rewrite history according to the latest liar or victor and teach children to integrate into a disintegrating society designed to reduce civilization to the lowest common denominator in a master-slave relationship on a global plantation, and force-funded by usurpations of earned wealth and property rights through forced legal tenant/rent type taxation schemes and bogus force-backed laws that demand subservience against the will of the individual majority backed by the illegitimate use of force by uncontrolled political and legal institutions backed by subjective law and forced at the end of a barrel by duped individuals in law enforcement in a democracy where 51 percent of the population is allowed to tell 49 percent of the population what to do, and how to run their lives, and the lives of their children. Some of the most successful and productive members of society never completed government-forced educational systems, thus freeing them to create extraordinary values for themselves, and society.

Religious Systems that render eternal progression hostage to a violent god or allah and by foisting guilt on innocent victims through manipulated 'truths' by individuals seeking unearned power and control at the expense of the righteous and unalienable pursuit of life, liberty, and happiness in a bizarrely unnatural anti-civilization in the pursuit of a questionable afterlife virtually unobtainable by disobedience of the immutable laws of the Universe, and which ultimately culminates in the loss of life of all the inhabitants of planet Earth if allowed to continue on its present course.

Energy Systems designed to hold us hostages to Oil Company profiteers with no hope for free energy or renewable energy abundantly available throughout existence, but denied by malevolent greed at the expense of your unalienable natural rights.

Income Taxation and Property Taxation that transfers individual power and wealth creation to a malevolent handful of elite who use bogus monetary systems created out of nothing of any tangible value, and used to gain unlimited control of the masses to accomplish their malevolent agenda of a feudalistic master-slave relationship on a global plantation in a mathematically formulated model consisting of only those individual servants necessary to maintain their utopian goals of no-effort wealth, power, and dominion at the expense of the natural law rights of every conscious individual on the planet.

Our false buying power fueled by the endless creation of debt using paper money systems few are able to comprehend, unwittingly held hostage to cheap products from hostage labor in foreign countries made possible only by the exportation of debt by forced political subservience from the hostage countries manipulated by illegitimate governments and controlled career politicians who unwittingly transfer power to elite and corporate interests, for the purpose of gain derived from a house of cards designed to self-destruct to accomplish the dual purpose of war profiteering and population reduction strategies.

The Emerging Global Police State resulting from increasingly tyrannical governments now holding us hostage by, among others, Patriot Act 1 and 2; through usurpation of our voting power in a constitutional republic usurped by transforming political institutions into a one party system of hypocrisy which serves only the rich and corporate interests by transforming prosperity enhancing republican forms of government into no-win democratic systems that factual history demonstrate perennially fall when individuals discover they can vote themselves largess from the public funds, and as history shows, ultimately devolve into communist socialist fascist government systems at the expense of the many for the benefit of the few by manipulating facts in reality in ways that the majority, driven by misguided pride and the pursuit of no-effort unearned wealth are unaware that such a system is inimical to their best interests until the system collapses under its own weight and the people are left without resources to control their destiny.

A Bogus War on Terrorism propagated by terrorist regimes using inversions of reality whereby duped masses operating in an upside down anti-civilization psychologically conditioned to cognize evil as good, and good as evil.

And where did they get all this power to control our lives?

WE GAVE IT TO THEM!

Are you ready to take back control? Control of your mind?

Are you ready to cure the disease that created problems where none exist, and lethally blights human consciousness?

Are you ready to start your journey into the eternal sunshine of a spotlessly-honest mind?

Do you have ten seconds?

Before we give you the key, we need to give you a few instructions about how this vehicle operates. It is going to take a little effort, or discipline on your part; which usually always involves doing something you least want to do - like work, or facing reality. You might have to skip a meal or two. You might have to skip your favorite television program, the controlled media news, or heaven forbid; your favorite sporting event. You might even consider skipping church. You are going to have to get out of your comfort zone, and you can accomplish in just ten seconds what has taken others years of research and thought to learn and comprehend.

You are going to have to learn to use your brain all over again. You are going to have to take back your mind by allowing it to integrate facts in reality. You are going to have to think.

The miracle will not happen unless you make it happen. You are going to have to take action. You cannot create something by doing nothing. But what will probably be the hardest obstacle you will encounter as you begin to operate the vehicle, is that you are going to have to be completely honest with yourself in all areas of life.

You are going to have to learn to accept responsibility for your actions. You are going to have to realize that the use of force, fraud, and coercion are never justified, and realize that real wealth comes not as a gift, but from hard, disciplined effort in accordance with natural law, because in ten seconds you are about to harness power you never knew you had, and with power comes responsibility.

Are you ready? You are about to escape this reality and explode out the other side into a civilization 180 degrees parallel to one you are now in. At the end of the journey you will find yourself outside the anti-civilization bubble looking in. You are going to see things as you have never seen them before.

Are you ready?

We are going to use the following quote by Robert Thayer to describe the process:

“If the number of errors in a number of lines of code is a known quantity, an Engineer would not try to repair or improve some poorly designed software by adding more lines of code. Subtractive thinking must be employed: make a system work by taking something away. In the case of software this would directly reduce the number of errors.”

OK. Do you have ten seconds?

We are going to hand over the key that opens the door. You are about to enter the vehicle that is going to take you places you have yet to imagine. You are about to remove the ‘faulty lines of code’.

First, take a few minutes to form a mental picture of practically everything you have ever been taught from your earliest memory to the present moment. Imagine your whole life flashing before you in a high speed motion picture film, and freeze it into a single frame.

Take a deep breath, deep into your lungs, hold it for a brief moment, and let it out with a sigh.

Do this three times.

Now take the picture you are holding in your mind, and DUMP IT. Hit the button, and send it to the recycle bin! Do not worry about it - you can always retrieve it from the recycle bin, although we do not know why anyone would want to do that. Trust us, the anti-civilization will still be there trying to suck you back in.

Ten seconds, every time.

Welcome to the civilization of the Universe.

Enjoy the ride!

True Value Creation

We have mentioned ‘true value creation’ a few times in preceding pages, and the reason we introduced The Ten Second Miracle at this point is because we would like you to forget any wealth creation strategies you may have come across before that ‘contain lines of faulty code’. Let us be honest, wealth creation plays right into the hands of those wanting to extract value from those driven by greed. You can see this in the way classified ads, magazine advertorials and seminars for Wealth Creation or Wealth Management courses are advertised. We have all heard the phrase ‘Get Rich Quick’ so often that it is now only used together with the word ‘scheme’. There is no such thing as ‘Get Rich Quick’, which is why we are asking you to dump any preconceived ideas you may have about ‘instant’ wealth creation.

What we are talking about now is a wealth creation method which supports all the Fresh Wisdom Axioms and Principles. We wanted to create an opportunity which is 100% ethical because it focuses on true value creation instead of conning values from an unsuspecting, gullible market. Let us remind ourselves what the laws are.

The Laws of Financial Independence & Wealth Creation are based on:

Materialization: This is a fundamental law of the Universe: what the mind of man can conceive, it can bring about. The mind is the workshop in which everything is initially created.

Persistence: Without persistence, very little is ever achieved. With it, anything can be accomplished. Understanding and harnessing it can lead to the achievement of any goal. A Plan without Persistence is no plan at all.

Actualization: The ultimate reason and purpose for a successful life is to attain transcendent self-actualization. This is what we refer to as the Omega Point. Self-actualization is to find self-fulfillment and realize one's full potential. Self-transcendence is to connect to something beyond the ego or to help others find self-fulfillment and realize their potential.

Leverage: This law is the principle of taking all of your assets (your time being the most valuable) and making them work for you.

Let us discuss each in a little more detail.

Materialization

The concept behind Fresh Wisdom is to stimulate creative, independent thought. As you progressed through the manual you no doubt thought of better ways of explaining some of the concepts. Many even think of totally new concepts, triggered by something explained in Fresh Wisdom.

Over the next few weeks more and more concepts will crystallize in your mind, and it is not uncommon for people to wake in the middle of the night with yet another “Aha!” experience as something clicks into place.

We suggest you keep a record of these ‘revelations’. Each revelation on their own may not mean too much to you right now, but after a series of such ‘mind parties’ something wonderful starts to happen: a concrete idea for how you can help others materializes from the dim mists. This idea will form the first product which will start building your Independent Wealth Creation System. More about this a little later.

Freedom Technology materialized in just this manner. Three people got together with the vaguest of ideas, and absolutely no idea how to make it work. All we could ever come up with were the obstacles and challenges in making this information available to a wide audience. But there is power in ‘sending a message into the Universe’. Perhaps it has to do with those parallel realities we discussed earlier. Perhaps the Creator does respond to such requests (note that we are not referring to the pious forms of prayer many religions teach). Whatever the reason, the fact that you are reading this information proves that the Law of Materialization is real and it works.

Persistence

Persistence is defined as ‘to try to do or continue doing something in a determined but often unreasonable way’.

Needless to say, there is a difference between persisting with a plan doomed to failure and following a dream which is grounded in Natural Law. Fresh Wisdom has shown you what the basis is of Natural Law, and any product ideas grounded in these laws have traditionally achieved success in the past, given the required persistence and dedication.

A perfect example of dedicated persistence is Einstein, who is said to have conducted more than 9,000 experiments to perfect the light bulb. See 4 Lessons in Creativity online.<sup>3</sup>

The difference with persistence when applied to the Freedom Technology Wealth Creation Model, is that the results achieved are long term. This is completely different to ‘persisting’ in a salaried position where your only reward is a token salary payment at the end of the month.

Actualization

Here is a statement that may sound harsh: ‘Unless you reach your Personal Omega Point, any product you create will be conning value from the market.’

Look, it is easy to make money these days on the Internet. We can quote many examples of unscrupulous marketers who take information already in the public domain, package it into an eBook, craft a slick sales letter (or they pay someone else to do it for them) and make money – often truckloads of it. That is not value creation – it is value extraction.

The reason people do this is because without reaching the Omega Point, there really is nothing new under the sun. The sheeple are so caught in the bubble of their anti-civilization that creative thought is impossible. So they resort to repackaging the same information. And the sheeple fall for it, because they know no better.

However, after reaching your Omega Point, new ideas are generated and triggered, and it is these ideas which create value, and which will form the basis of any products in your Wealth Creation System.

Leverage

As we have said before, the best known example of leverage is that of pop stars or authors, who apply effort once (recording an album, writing a book) and continue earning income for years after, every time an album or book is sold. Until you can leverage your time, you will never become wealthy and powerful. As we have explained in previous chapters, we will be using the Internet to continue selling a product you have created for many years after you have made the initial commitment.

But we will be leveraging an additional system, which we will explain now.

A surprising (to us) side-effect of Fresh Wisdom is the hunger for more information. “How can that be?” we kept lamenting. “We wanted to create the complete guide for Fulfilled Living, and yet we are receiving hundreds of questions wanting to know more!”

But that is perfectly in-line with our desire to stimulate creative thinking, and we are pleased to see how many have contacted us wanting clarification on certain concepts. And it is this hunger which creates a perfect opportunity for you. The Fresh Wisdom concept is still very new, and it would help us tremendously if you could expound a particular principle. In doing so, you will have started your own wealth creation system.

So, you will be leveraging the Freedom Technology Community. Would you not feel more comfortable buying information from someone you know has read this manual? That is exactly what other Fresh Thinkers have been telling us. In this way we can all work together to increase ‘collective consciousness’ of the Fresh Wisdom concepts.

Incidentally, this community is not a feeble gathering of a few hundred people. This manual and the Freedom Technology Email Seminar has enjoyed significant growth, and we have even bigger plans to grow significantly. Our conservative aim is 10 million free Seminars distributed by the end of 2007, the majority of whom will remain part of the community because of the ongoing value gained. So, as you can see, you will be leveraging a pretty powerful community! A community all dedicated to value creation, not value extraction.

You are obviously under no obligation whatsoever to leverage this system. There is enough information in the Wealth Creation Seminars to go off on your own, if you so wish. However, we have found that a helping hand every now and then certainly eases the learning curve, and we hope you will take advantage of this system.

How Does the FT Wealth Creation System Work?

Just a reminder: At no point will you be working for, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Freedom Technology. We are not some sort of Multi Level Marketing (MLM) organization. You will be keeping everything you make as a result of implementing these strategies.

Very simply, you write a digital downloadable eBook explaining one or more concepts of Fresh Wisdom, we market it for you, you keep all revenue generated by sales of your eBook. You win by building your Wealth Creation System, and we win by having the concepts of Fresh Wisdom expanded far quicker than this small team of three people can accomplish. The arrangement works on the principles of Axiom #12 – Relationships: Successful relationships hinge upon a continued and approximately equal exchange of values between the partners. When an imbalance occurs the imbalance is addressed or the relationship is ended.

The system itself is only due to launch in Quarter 1, 2006, as we are still developing all the supporting material required to make this truly effective. But that does not mean you cannot start writing your book right now, so that by the time we are ready, you could be one of the first to use this incredible system.

Responsibilities

Perhaps the best method of explaining who is responsible for which part of your Wealth Creation System is by means of a table.

Responsibilities for Each Party in the FT Wealth Creation System
Fresh Thinker	Freedom Technology
Create the product, including proof-reading, final editing and conversion to pdf	Provide advice and guidance in the selection of a product idea
Write a compelling sales letter and follow up sequence (or mini-course)*	Provide a once-off Launch Announcement to the FT Community (by email)
Handle all prospect queries, customer complaints and refund requests *	Make reference to the product at appropriate places in the Email Seminar Series and other publications
Register with a payment processor to handle online payments	Include the product and brief description in the FT Shopping Cart, with a direct link to your sales letter
Provide additional marketing for external prospects (pay-per-click ads, etc. – if required)	Set up auto-responders and follow-up sequences for prospects
Register a domain name and arrange hosting *	Track performance and provide reports on a monthly basis.

* We will very soon be offering a service whereby the more technical aspects of the system can be handled by us. There will be a small charge for this service, as this is a true value creation service for someone who may not want to concern themselves with technicalities.

Frequently Asked Questions

We will soon have a detailed User Guide explaining the whole process, but until we do, here are answers to some of the questions most often asked.

1. Will FT market anything I produce?

You will find that we are extremely lenient regarding standards, content and even belief systems, so the short answer is Yes, we will market anything you produce (with certain exceptions obviously). However, you should be aware of a few pointers.

We strictly limit the number of Product Launch emails, to ensure that subscribers are not flooded with useless marketing messages. Priority is given to those products which: conform to and agree with the FT Philosophy; can easily be categorized into one of the 5 Pillars of Fulfilled Living; and meet certain formatting guidelines.

FT uses an Endorsement System. All products are reviewed by a panel prior to inclusion in the FT System – those that the panel agrees are in support of the FT Philosophy are assigned a special logo, indicating that it is endorsed by FT. Products that blatantly negate or challenge FT principles will be marketed with a suitable warning.

In other words, it is in your interests to prepare material largely in line with FT Principles. This is because we believe anything contradictory is value extraction, not value creation. We do reserve the right to reject material for any reason.

2. Will FT own anything I produce?

No. It is your product and everything about the product remains yours. We are simply offering to advertise your product with no further commitment on your part, and no guarantee of success on our part.

3. What type of products can be sold?

We highly recommend only producing information products. The easiest product is a digitally downloadable eBook, because this simplifies the delivery mechanism. However you may choose to produce audio cassettes or CD's, DVD's, consulting services, physical books or any other product you believe will add value and produce revenue.

4. How many pages should an eBook consist of?

Between 100 to 200 pages. The entire book should never exceed 800Kb in size, so beware of large graphics. Booklets for 20 pages are fairly common, but are usually given away as a sample for a lengthier book.

5. Who sets the price of the product?

You do, and we encourage you to change the price frequently to test the results. We recommend pricing anywhere between $17 and $97 for a digital download, depending on the value provided by the product. The price of a product can often be significantly increased by adding relevant bonuses.

Physical info products (like DVD sets and manuals) can sell for as much as $1,000, but we would recommend starting small first.

6. What payment processor should I use?

If this is the first time you are marketing on the Internet, we recommend keeping it simple (i.e. you do not need to open a Merchant Account). We recommend www.ClickBank.com or www.Paypal.com.

7. Who handles shipping and inventory for physical products?

This is entirely your responsibility, although we recommend outsourcing to a company like www.FulfillmentCentral.com.

8. Who is responsible for copyright protection and copyright infringement issues?

You are responsible for all matters relating to copyright, including any copyright infringement within your works.

9. Where can I find further answers on digital product creation?

While we would love to help you, we cannot at this stage provide further assistance on digital product creation. We encourage you to consider Michael Green's How to Create & Sell Products Online<sup>4</sup> as this will shave many weeks or months off your learning time.

General questions regarding formatting and preparing books for Publishers on Demand can be found at lulu.com<sup>5</sup> and booksurge.com.<sup>6</sup>

We hope this chapter has made you excited about starting your own Wealth Creation System. We will soon be able to provide more details, but get started on writing your book!
